Upon the commencement of any foreclosure proceeding hereunder, the court in which such bill is filed may at any time, either before or after sale, and without notice to the Mortgagee, or any party claiming under him, and without regard to the solvency of the Mortgagee or the then value of said Premises, or whether the same shall then be occupied by the owner of the equity of redemption as a homestead, appoint a receiver with power to manage and rent and to collect the rents, issues and profits of said Premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and the statutory period of redemption, and such rents, issues and profits, when collected, may be applied before as well as after the foreclosure sale, towards the payment of the indebtedness, costs, taxes, insurance or other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the Premises, including the expenses of such receivership, or on any deficiency decree whether there be a decree therefor in personam or not, and the full period allowed by statute for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, and until the issuance of a deed in case of sale, but if no deed be issued, until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued and no lease of
