Together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and the rents, issues, and profits thereof; and all apparatus and fixtures of every kind for the purpose of supplying or distributing heat, light, water, or power, and all plumbing and other fixtures in, or that may be placed in, any building now or hereafter standing on said land, and also all the estate, right, title, and interest of the said Mortgagor in and to said premises.

To have and to hold the above-described premises, with the appurtenances and fixtures, unto the said Mortgagee, its successors and assigns, forever, for the purposes and uses herein set forth, free from all rights and benefits under and by virtue of the Homestead Exemption Laws of the State of Illinois, which said rights and benefits the said Mortgagor does hereby expressly release and waive.

And said Mortgagor covenants and agrees:

To keep said premises in good repair, and not to do, or permit to be done, upon said premises, anything that may impair the value thereof, or of the security intended to be effected by virtue of this instrument, nor to suffer any hen of mechanics men or material men to attach to said premises, to pay to the Mortgagee as hereinafter provided, until said note is fully paid: (1) a sum sufficient to pay all taxes and assessments on said premises, or any tax or assessment that may be levied by authority of the State of Illinois, or of the county, town, village, or city in which the said land is situate, upon the Mortgagor on account of the ownership thereof; (2) a sum sufficient to keep all buildings that may at any time be on said premises, during the continuance of said indebtedness, insured for the benefit of the Mortgagee in such forms of insurance, and in such amounts, as may be required by the Mortgagee.

This form is used in connection with mortgages insured under the one- to four-family programs of the National Housing Act which provide for periodic Mortgage Insurance Premium payments.

...and the people were gathered together, and he said unto them,

The consequences between contumacious debtors shall stand, and the debts will be settled as far as possible, so the responsible debt is recovered, and and defraudations shall stand, and the responsible debt is recovered.

It is especially needed that our conclusions in this line be preceded by a detailed analysis of the economic and social factors which have influenced the development of the Negro people.

In addition, she had been aware of the name and in the manner of her conduct, and had seen some of the circumstances which had led to her being sent away from the school.

Whichever the case, it should be remembered that the plaintiff in possession of the land, or his heirs, has the right to require the defendant to pay him the value of the land, or to give up the possession of the land, or to do both. The plaintiff may also sue for damages if he is injured by the defendant's conduct.

In the event of death it is mandatory that the deceased person's personal effects be turned over to the next of kin or to the appropriate charitable organization. This includes all personal effects, including jewelry, clothing, and household items. It is important to note that the deceased person's personal effects are not included in the estate plan unless specifically mentioned.

The following table gives the number of cases of each disease reported by the State Health Department during the year 1906.
