Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes.

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty) together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount assessed for a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Lienors, And Judgment Lien Creditors. - The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lienor, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof, which meets the requirements of subsection (f), has been filed by the Secretary.

(f) Place For Filing Notice; Form. -

(1) Place For Filing. - The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed -

(A) Under State Laws -

(i) Real Property. - In the case of real property, in the office within the State (or the county or other governmental subdivision) as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and

(ii) Personal Property. - In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in any office within the State (or the county or other governmental subdivision) as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated.

(B) With Clerk Of District Court. - In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or any received written information on the manner provided in regulations issued by the Secretary, including a change in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (f) in the State in which such residence is located.

Required Retiling Period. - In the case of lien, the term required retiling period means one year period ending 30 days after the expiration date after the date of the assessment of the tax, and one year period ending with the expiration of 6 years after the close of the preceding required retiling period for notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.

Release Of Lien. - Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall indicate release of any lien imposed with respect to revenue tax not later than 30 days after the day on liability satisfied or unenforceable. The Secretary shall indicate the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest thereon, has been fully satisfied or has become unenforceable or has been accepted. There is furnished to the Secretary and the taxpayer a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect to the time prescribed by law (including any extension of time) and that is in accordance with such regulations in terms, conditions, and form of the bond as may be specified by such regulations.

Sec. 6320. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.

Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration.

Disclosure of amount of outstanding tax, if a notice of lien is filed pursuant to section 6321, the amount of the obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he is in the property subject to such lien or intends to acquire an interest in such property.
