together with all improvements, tenements, easements, fixtures and appurtenances now or hereafter thereon belonging, including all heating, air-conditioning, gas and plumbing apparatus and fixtures, and every thing appurtenant thereto, and all rents, issues and profits thereof or therefrom; hereby releasing and waiving an and all rights under and by virtue of the homestead exemption laws of the State of Illinois.

The Grantors covenant and agree (1) to pay said indebtedness, and all other amounts that may be payable under the Contract, as provided in the Contract or according to any agreement extending the time of payment; (2) to pay, before any penalty attaches, all taxes and assessments against said premises, and, on demand to exhibit receipts therefor; (3) within sixty days after any destruction or damage, to rebuild or restore all buildings and improvements on the premises that may have been destroyed or damaged; (4) that waste to the premises shall not be committed or suffered; (5) to keep all buildings and other improvements now or hereafter on the premises insured against such risks, for such amounts and with such companies and under such policies and in such terms as to be reasonably satisfactory to the legal holder of the Contract, which policies shall provide that loss thereunder shall be payable first to the holder of any prior encumbrance on the premises and second to the Trustee, as their respective interests may appear; and, upon request in writing of the Trustee or to the legal holder of the Contract satisfactory evidence of such insurance; and (6) to pay, when due, all indebtedness which may be secured by any prior encumbrances on the premises.

The Grantors further agree that, in the event of any failure to make or pay due such assessments, or pay the indebtedness secured by any prior encumbrances on the premises, or the legal holder of the Contract may, in time or times, but need not, procure such insurance, or pay such taxes or assessments, or discharge or purchase any tax lien or lien affecting the premises, or pay the indebtedness securing any prior encumbrances on the premises, and the Grantors agree to reimburse the Trustee, or the legal holder of the Contract, as the case may be, upon demand, for all amounts so paid and the same shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby.

The Grantors further agree that, in the event of a breach of any of the aforesaid covenants or agreements, or of any covenants or agreements contained in the Contract, the indebtedness secured hereby shall, at the option of the legal holder of the Contract, without demand or notice of any kind, become immediately due and payable and shall be recoverable by foreclosure hereof, or by suit at law, or both, to the same extent as if such indebtedness had been matured by its express terms.

The Grantors further agree that all expenses and disbursements paid or incurred in behalf of plaintiff, or plaintiff's attorney with the foreclosure hereof (including reasonable attorney's fees, notlays for documentary evidence, non-acceptance charges and costs of recording or completing abstract showing the whole title of said premises embraced by such foreclosure) shall be paid by the Grantors, and the said expenses and disbursements, occasioned by any suit or proceeding wherein the Trustee, or the legal holder of the Contract, as such, may be party, shall also be paid by the Grantors. All such expenses and disbursements shall be an additional lien upon the premises, and shall be taxed against and included in any decree that may be rendered in such foreclosure proceedings, which proceedings, when once commenced, shall not be stayed or adjourned, nor shall any release hereof be given, until all such expenses and disbursements and the costs of suit, including attorney's fees, have been paid. The Grantors, for the Grantors and for the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the Grantors, waive all right to the possession of and income from the premises pending such foreclosure proceedings, and agree that upon the filing of any complaint to foreclose this Trust Deed, the court in which such complaint is filed may at once and without delay, if the Grantors or any party claiming under the Grantors, appoint a receiver to take possession and charge of the premises with the duty to collect the rents, issues and profits of the premises.

The Trustee shall, upon receipt of its reasonable fees, if any, for the preparation of such release, release this Trust Deed and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed has been fully paid, and the Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall deliver to it after the maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to the Trustee the Contract representing that all indebtedness secured hereby has been paid, which representation the Trustee may accept as true without further inquiry.

All obligations of the Grantors, and all rights, powers and remedies of the Trustee and the holder of the Contract expressed herein shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, those provided in the Contract or by law.
