Interest on said note shall accrue at a rate per annum equal to the interest rate index in effect each day, which rate shall change when and as the interest rate index changes. All instalment payments received on said note shall be applied first to the payment of interest accrued to the date the instalment is paid, and any amount remaining from an instalment after application to interest shall be applied in reduction of unpaid principal. Interest on said note shall increase to a rate per annum equal to the sum of the interest rate index in effect each day plus 5%, which rate shall change when and as the interest rate index changes after the due date of the final instalment or upon default until all liabilities are paid. Interest on said note will be computed based upon a 365-day year for the actual number of days elapsed. The interest rate index is the moving average each month of the highest "Prime Rate" as published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal each business day. The Prime Rate in effect on non-business days shall be the highest Prime Rate published in The Wall Street Journal on the immediately preceding business day. If the index is no longer available, the bank will choose a new index in its sole discretion and will send notification of this choice.
