Neither the fact that Lessee may have, at any time, or from time to time, refused or failed to purchase the demised premises under or pursuant to any purchase refusal option in this lease contained, whether or not Lessor shall have sold the premises to any third party at a greater or lesser price than the option price specified above in this Article, nor any other fact, act or neglect to act shall be effective to defeat Lessee's right of purchasing the demised premises from the present or any subsequent Lessor at the option price and under the terms stated in this Article. ~~On Lessee's giving notice of its exercise of this option, the provisions of Article XIV of this lease shall be inoperative and of no force or effect and any rights that Lessor may have therefore had shall forthwith terminate.~~

ARTICLE XIV.

PURCHASE REFUSAL:

The parties hereto have agreed that Lessee should have the prior right to purchase the demised premises throughout the original term and all extended terms hereof on as favorable terms as Lessor may from time to time be willing to sell the same to a third party even though the price at which Lessor may be willing to sell shall be less than that set forth in any purchase option or options for a specific sum which may elsewhere in this lease be granted and then available to Lessee, and that during such original and extended terms hereof such right of refusal in Lessee should co-exist with other options and rights contained herein and should be a continuing one and available to Lessee as often as the present Lessor and any subsequent Lessor shall be willing to sell said premises to any third party. Accordingly, in the event Lessor shall receive from a third party at any time during the original term of this lease or any extension thereof a bona fide offer to purchase the said premises at a specified price, whether such price be first fixed by Lessor or the third party, and Lessor shall decide to sell the same for such amount, Lessor shall promptly give to Lessee notice thereof accompanied by an affidavit setting out the full terms of such offer and of Lessor's willingness to sell for the price offered, and Lessee shall have the first refusal and privilege (hereinafter referred to as an "option") of purchasing said premises at such price; such option to be exercised within to purchase the demised premises and the obligation of lessor to sell and convey the same for the sum hereinafter specified. This option shall be a continuing option and shall constitute a never-terminating option with the land throughout the period above specified, and any extension thereof, and shall be construed to be solely for the benefit of lessee and to be additional to and independent of any and all other privileges, options of purchase and rights or options of refusal contained in this lease. Neither the lessor nor lessee may have, at any time, or from time to time, exercised or failed to purchase the demised premises under or pursuant to any purchase option in this lease contained, whether or not lessee shall have sold the premises to any third party at a greater or lesser price than the option price specified above in this Article, nor any other fact, not or neglect to act shall be effective to defeat lessor's right of purchasing the demised premises from the present or any subsequent lessor at the option price and under the terms stated in this Article. Upon lessee's giving such notice lessor shall comply with the requirements of the second preceding Article entitled "CONVEYANCE REQUIREMENTS."

On lessee's giving notice of its exercise of this option the provisions of Article XIV of this lease shall be inoperative and of no force or effect and any rights that lessor may have there-before shall forthwith terminate.

ARTICLE XIV.

PURCHASE REFUSAL:

The parties hereto have agreed that lessee should have the prior right to purchase the demised premises throughout the original term and all extended terms hereof on as favorable terms as lessor may from time to time be willing to sell the same to a third party even though the price at which lessor may be willing to sell shall be less than that set forth in any purchase option or option for a specific sum which may elsewhere in this lease be granted and then available to lessee, and that during each original and extended term hereof such right of refusal in lessee should co-exist with other options and rights contained herein and should be a continuing one and available to lessee as often as the present lessor and any subsequent lessor shall be willing to sell said premises to any third party. Accordingly, in the event lessee shall receive from a third party an offer during the original term of this lease or any extension thereof a bona fide offer to purchase the said premises at a specified price, whether such price be fixed by lessor or the third party, and lessor shall be bound to sell the same for such amount, lessor shall promptly give to lessee notice thereof accompanied by an affidavit setting out the full terms of such offer and of lessee's willingness to sell for the price offered, and lessee shall have the first refusal and privilege (hereinafter referred to as an "option") of purchasing said premises at such price; such option to be exercised within fifteen (15) days after Lessee receives notice from Lessor, by Lessee's notifying Lessor that it will purchase said premises for the amount specified in said offer. In the event Lessee shall not give Lessor notice, within said fifteen-day period, of its election to purchase for the amount specified in said offer, Lessee shall not be obligated to purchase, and Lessor may thereafter sell said premises to the party making said offer, always subject, however, to the provisions of this lease and to the leasehold estate herein granted, including without limitation Lessee's right to receive notice and affidavit of, and to purchase according to, the terms of any future bona fide offer acceptable to the then Lessor of the demised premises and to any and all other or additional purchase options, extension options and to all rights and privileges of Lessee in this lease contained. In the event any such bona fide offer shall cover a tract larger than but including the demised premises, Lessee's right of refusal under this Article shall apply to such larger tract. If Lessee shall fail to avail itself of its prior right to purchase such larger tract whether or not Lessor shall thereafter sell the same to a third party, Lessee shall nevertheless retain its right to receive notice and affidavit of, and prior right to purchase according to, the terms of any and all future or subsequent bona fide offers which may be acceptable to the then Lessor of the demised premises.

The provisions of this Article shall be construed to be solely for the benefit of Lessee and to be additional to, independent of, and in nowise affected by the existence of, any or all other privileges, options or rights of purchase contained in this lease.

If Lessee shall elect to purchase said premises under the option hereby granted, Lessor shall comply with the requirements of the next succeeding Article.

ARTICLE XV.

CONVEYANCE REQUIREMENTS:

The giving by Lessee of notice of the exercise of any purchase option hereinbefore granted shall fix and determine the obligation of Lessee to purchase the property included in the option which Lessee elects to exercise, and the obligation of Lessor to sell the same. Lessor shall furnish, free of expense to Lessee, within thirty (30) days after the receipt of said notice, a complete Abstract of Title certified from title in the Government, prepared and issued by a financially responsible title abstract company, or a Title Guaranty Policy issued by a financially responsible title insurance company, or a Torrens Certificate of Title, showing fee simple title in said premises

... (12) days after Lessee receives notice from Lessor by Lessee's attorney that it will purchase said premises for the amount specified in said offer. In the event Lessee shall not give Lessee notice within said fifteen-day period, the amount of purchase for the amount specified in said offer, Lessee shall not be obligated to purchase, and Lessor may thereafter sell said premises to the party making said offer, without prejudice to the provisions of this lease and to the Lessee's estate herein granted, including without limitation Lessee's right to receive notice and affidavit of, and to purchase for the terms of any future bona fide offer acceptable to the Lessor of the leased premises and to any and all other or additional purchase options, extension options and to all rights and privileges of Lessee in this lease contained therein but including the leased premises, Lessee's right of refusal under this Article shall apply to such larger tract. If Lessee shall fail to avail itself of its prior right to purchase such larger tract within the time specified herein, the Lessor shall have the right to sell said premises to a third party, and Lessee shall have no right to purchase or to receive notice and affidavit of, and prior right to purchase according to the terms of any and all future or subsequent bona fide offers which may be acceptable to the then Lessor of the leased premises.

The provisions of this Article shall be construed to be solely for the benefit of Lessee and to be additional to, independent of, and in no way affected by the existence of, any or all other rights, options or privileges of purchase contained in this lease.

If Lessee shall elect to purchase said premises under the option hereby granted, Lessor shall comply with the requirements of the next succeeding Article.

ARTICLE XV

CONVEYANCE REQUIREMENTS:

The giving by Lessee of notice of the exercise of any purchase option hereinafter granted shall fix and determine the obligation of Lessee to purchase the premises included in the option which Lessee elects to exercise, and the obligation of Lessor to sell the same. Lessor shall furnish, free of expense to Lessee, within thirty (30) days after the receipt of said notice, a complete abstract of title certified from title in the Government, prepared and issued by a financially responsible title abstract company, or a Title Guaranty Policy issued by a financially responsible title insurance company, or a Torrens Certificate of Title, showing fee simple title in said premises and appurtenances, including any easements granted hereunder, in Lessor as of a date not earlier than the date of said notice. A reasonable time will be allowed Lessee to examine such abstract, or other evidence of title, and if the same does not then show fee simple title in Lessor, a reasonable time will be allowed Lessor to cure defects and clear the title preparatory to delivery of deed and any other instruments required to effect the transfer and conveyance.

Upon acceptance by Lessee of said title and payment to Lessor of the purchase price herein specified, Lessor shall convey to Lessee or its nominee, by ~~Grantor's~~ ^{Trustee's} Deed, a fee simple title in and to said real estate and the appurtenances thereunto belonging, together with any perpetual easements and appurtenances in adjoining or adjacent land necessary for the installation, maintenance, operation and use of sewer, water, gas, power and other utility lines and for driveways and approaches for the use and benefit of the above described parcel of real estate, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, and charges of whatsoever character, with release of dower, curtesy, homestead, and all statutory rights; and shall also deliver to Lessee, free of expense to Lessee, such abstract, or other evidence of title, showing fee simple title to said premises in Lessor at the time of delivery of deed. Payment hereunder may be made by Lessee's tendering its check, draft or voucher in the amount of the purchase price, and if there be more than one Lessor, tender to any Lessor shall constitute tender to all. Lessor shall pay the cost of the required Federal documentary stamps on said deed.

If any personal property shall be included in the option, Lessor shall furnish evidence, satisfactory to Lessee, of Lessor's ownership thereof, and shall convey the same by Bill of Sale with full covenants of warranty.

Such purchase shall serve to merge the within lease in all particulars, and if Lessor shall have been paid rents covering a period subsequent to date of delivery of deed, such payment shall be applied on and shall constitute a part of the purchase price of the property conveyed.

Lessor, at the time of such purchase, shall deliver said premises to Lessee free of any encumbrance or lien whatsoever; however, Lessee may, at its option, take title subject to any encumbrance or lien, deducting from the purchase price the amount thereby represented.

Partial or total destruction of the premises without fault of Lessee, or the happening of any event described in Article XI. hereof entitled "LEGAL INTERFERENCE," after the exercise by Lessee of the Purchase Option or Purchase Refusal herein, shall, at Lessee's election, excuse Lessee's performance of the contract formed by the exercise of either of said options, it being understood that Lessee's election shall not limit Lessee's rights under this lease.

and arrangements, including any easements granted hereunder, in favor of a date not earlier than the date of said notice. A reasonable time will be allowed lessee to examine such abstract or other evidence of title, and if the same does not then show fee simple title in lessor, a reasonable time will be allowed lessee to cure defects and clear the title preparatory to delivery of deed and any other instruments required to effect the transfer and conveyance.

Upon acceptance by lessee of said title and payment to lessor of the purchase price hereunder, lessor shall convey to lessee or its nominee, by ~~deed~~ deed, a fee simple title in and to said real estate and the appurtenances thereto belonging, together with any property, easements and arrangements in relation to adjacent land necessary for the installation, maintenance, operation and use of sewer, water, gas, power and other utility lines and conduits and appurtenances for the use and benefit of the above described parcel of real estate, trees and clear of all lines, easements, and charges of whatsoever character, with release of power, covenants, conditions, and all restrictive covenants, and shall also deliver to lessee, free of all encumbrances, such abstract, or other evidence of title, showing fee simple title to said parcel of land to lessor at the time of delivery of deed. Lessor hereunder may be held by lessee's tendering the check, draft or voucher in the amount of the purchase price, and if there be more than one lessor, tender to any lessor shall constitute tender to all. Lessor shall pay the cost of the required Federal documentary stamps on said deed.

If any personal property shall be included in the option, lessor shall furnish evidence, satisfactory to lessee, of lessor's ownership thereof, and shall convey the same by Bill of Sale with full covenants of warranty.

Such purchase shall serve to make the within lease in all jurisdictions, and if lessor shall have been paid rent covering a period subsequent to date of delivery of deed, such payment shall be applied on and shall constitute a part of the purchase price of the property conveyed.

Lessor, at the time of such purchase, shall deliver said premises to lessee free of any encumbrance or lien whatsoever; however, lessee may, at its option, take title subject to any encumbrance or lien, deducting from the purchase price the amount there- by represented.

Partial or total destruction of the premises without fault of lessee, or the happening of any event described in Article XI hereof, shall not constitute a forfeiture of the purchase price, but shall constitute a breach of the contract, and lessee's election, exercise Lessee's performance of the contract formed by the exercise of either of said options, it being understood that Lessee's election shall not limit Lessee's rights under this lease.

ARTICLE XVI.

ARTICLE XVII.

BREACH OR DEFAULT:

In the event Lessor shall breach or be in default in the performance of any of the covenants or obligations on it herein imposed, and shall remain in default for a period of thirty (30) days after notice from Lessee to it of such default, Lessee shall have the right and privilege of terminating this lease and declaring the same at an end, and shall have the remedies now or hereafter provided by law for the recovery of damages occasioned by such default. If such breach or default shall consist of the failure or refusal of Lessor to maintain said premises in the condition required of Lessor, as hereinabove provided, Lessee may, at its option, after the expiration date of the notice to Lessor, make the necessary repairs or replacements, and Lessor shall be liable forthwith to Lessee for any amounts so expended. Lessee shall have the right to apply any unpaid rentals in liquidation of said indebtedness, and if at the expiration of this lease said indebtedness shall not have been paid, this lease, at the option of Lessee, shall continue in force on the terms and conditions herein set forth until said indebtedness shall have been fully satisfied.
