between Merrill Lynch Relocation as Seller and Lori Kleinerman and Michael Sweig
as Purchaser with respect to the property at 1834A N. Dayton

In the event of any conflict between the Provisions of this Rider and the provisions of the Agreement, the provisions of this Rider shall be controlling. Throughout this Rider the words "you," "your" and "yourselves" refer to the Purchaser(s) of the property, and the words "we," "our" and "us" refer to the Seller(s) of the property.

1. Condition of Premises: The house and fixtures, appliances and personal property (collectively "contents") being sold and purchased are not new. You understand and agree that neither we nor any of our agents have made any representations concerning the house or the contents except as noted below:

All electrical lines in all bathrooms will be set up to work, all lights, wall work, back door screen

2. Right and Duty of inspection: You have the right and duty to inspect the house and contents or have them inspected by an expert you select to determine whether any defects exist, including insulation that may be toxic. You will be required to pay for these inspections.

3. Limitation of Remedies: If you or any one representing you discover any defects in the house or contents, you must notify our agent or attorney in writing, describing these defects, within ten (10) days after the date you sign this Rider. such defects are discovered if such date is two weeks prior to closing

You still have the right to make a final inspection before settlement to be sure that the condition has not changed from your first inspection, even if we repair the defect or credit you cost of repair at settlement or sell it in "as - is" condition.

4. Settlement as Final: If you do choose not to inspect the premises and contents or if you do not have an expert inspect them for you or if you do not tell us in writing of any defect in the premises or the contents within the time limit noted above, we will take that to mean that you have accepted the condition of the premises and the contents as satisfactory and we will have no liability with respect to them.

Similarly, if you accept delivery of the Deed at settlement, we will take it to mean that the premises and contents were in satisfactory condition at the time of the closing, and we shall have no liability with respect to them.
