F. That upon the commencement of any foreclosure proceeding hereunder, the court in which such bill is filed may, at any time, either before or after sale, and without notice to the Mortgagor, or any party claiming under him, and without regard to the then value of said premises, or whether the same shall then be occupied by the owner of the equity of redemption as a homestead, appoint a receiver with power to manage and rent and to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and the statutory period of redemption, and such rents, issues and profits, when collected, may be applied before as well as after the Master's sale, towards the payment of the indebtedness, costs, taxes, insurance or other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the property, including the expenses of such receivership, or on any deficiency decree whether there be a decree therein in personam or not, and if a receiver shall be appointed he shall remain in possession until the expiration of the full period allowed by statute for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, and until the issuance of deed in case of sale, but if no deed be issued, until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued, and in lease of said premises shall be nullified by the appointment or entry in possession of a receiver but he may elect to terminate any lease prior to the lien herein, and upon the sale of said premises, there shall be an additional indebtedness in the decree of sale all expenditures and expenses together with interest thereon at the rate of 8% per annum, which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Mortgagor for attorneys' fees, Mortgagor's fees, appraisal fees, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to and include items to be expended after the entry of the decree) of procuring all such abstracts of title, title searches, examinations and reports, warranty policies, Torrens certificates and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Mortgagor may reasonably deem necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale held pursuant to such decree the true title to or value of said premises; all of which aforesaid amounts together with interest as herein provided shall be immediately due and payable by the Mortgagor in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate or bankruptcy proceedings to which either party hereto shall be a party by reason of this Mortgage or the Note hereby secured; or (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after the accrual of the right to foreclose, whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of or intervention in any threatened or contemplated suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced. In the event of a foreclosure sale of said premises there first shall be paid out of the proceeds thereof all of the aforesaid items, then the entire indebtedness, whether due and payable by the terms hereof or not and the interest due thereon up to the time of such sale, and the overplus if any, shall be paid to the Mortgagor, and the purchaser shall not be obliged to see to the application of the purchase money.

G. In case the mortgaged property, or any part thereof, shall be taken by condemnation, the Mortgagor is hereby empowered to collect and receive all compensation which may be paid for any property taken or for damages to any property not taken and all condemnation compensation so received shall be forthwith applied by the Mortgagor, as it may elect, to the immediate reduction of the indebtedness secured hereby, or to the repair and restoration of any property so damaged, provided that any excess over the amount of the indebtedness shall be delivered to the Mortgagor or his assigns.

H. All easements, rents, issues and profits of said premises are pledged, assigned and transferred to the Mortgagor, whether now due or hereafter to become due, under or by virtue of any sale or agreement for the use or occupancy of said property, or any part thereof, whether said lease or agreement is written or verbal, and it is the intention, by each (a) to pledge said rents, issues and profits on a parity with said real estate, and not secondarily and such pledge shall not be deemed merged in any foreclosure decree, and (b) to establish an absolute transfer and assignment to the Mortgagor of all such leases and agreements and all the rights thereunder, together with the right, in case of default, either before or after foreclosure sale, to enter upon and take possession of, manage, maintain and operate said premises, or any part thereof, make leases for terms deemed advantageous to it, terminate or modify existing or future leases, collect said rents, rents, issues and profits, regardless of when earned, and use such measures whether legal or equitable as it may deem proper to enforce collection therefrom, and to bring and defend all actions, suits, causes of action, or proceedings, by law, machinery or equipment, that it may deem necessary to prosecute, acquire, file and extended contracts and other forms of insurance as may be deemed advisable, and in general, to exercise all powers ordinarily incident to absolute ownership, advance or borrow money necessary for any purpose herein stated to secure which a lien is hereby created on the mortgaged premises and on the income therefrom, which lien is prior to the lien of any other indebtedness hereinafter secured, and out of the income retain reasonable compensation for itself, pay insurance premiums, taxes and assessments, and all expenses of every kind, including attorney's fees, incurred in the exercise of the powers herein given, and from time to time apply any balance of income not, in its sole discretion, needed for the aforesaid purposes, first on the interest and then on the principal of the indebtedness hereby secured, before or after any decree of foreclosure, and on the deficiency in the proceeds of sale, if any, whether there be a decree in personam thereto or not. Whenever all of the indebtedness secured hereby is paid, and the Mortgagor, in its sole discretion, feels that there is no substantial uncorrected default in performance of the Mortgagor's agreements herein, the Mortgagor, on satisfactory evidence thereof, shall relinquish possession and pay to Mortgagor any surplus income in its hands. The possession of Mortgagor may continue until all indebtedness secured hereby is paid in full or until the delivery of a deed pursuant to a decree foreclosing the lien herein, but if no deed be issued, then, until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued, Mortgagor shall, however, have the discretionary power at any time to refuse to take or to abandon possession of said premises without affecting the lien herein. Mortgagor shall have all powers, if any, which it might have had without this paragraph. No act shall be sustainable against Mortgagor based upon acts or omissions relating to the subject matter of this paragraph unless commenced within sixty days after its agent's possession ceases.

J. That each right, power and remedy herein conferred upon the Mortgagor is cumulative of each other right or remedy of the Mortgagor, whether herein or by law conferred, and may be enforced concurrently therewith, that no waiver by the Mortgagor of performance of any covenant herein or in said obligation contained shall thereafter in any manner affect the right of Mortgagor to require or enforce performance of the same or any other of said covenants, that wherever the context hereof requires, the masculine gender, as used herein, shall include the feminine and the neuter and the singular number, as used herein, shall include the plural, that all rights and obligations under this Mortgage shall extend to and be binding upon the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the Mortgagor, and the successors and assigns of the Mortgagor; and that the powers herein mentioned may be exercised as often as occasion therefrom arises.
