Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes.

If the person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount, including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty, together with any costs that may accrue, is assessable, there shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon property and rights in property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

Sec. 6322. Period of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed is discharged against the taxpayer, making out of such liability is satisfied, or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors. — The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not prevail as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanics' lien, or judgment lien creditor, and source thereof, which meets the requirements of subsection (b) as has been fixed by the Secretary.

(b) Protection For Certain Interests Even Though Notice Filed. — Even though notice of a lien imposed by section 6321 has been filed, such lien shall not prevail:

(i) Place For Filing Notice; Form.—

(1) Place For Filing. — The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed—

(A) United States Courts. —

(i) Real Property. — In the case of real property in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision) as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated, and

(ii) Personal Property. — In the case of personal property, whether tangible [REDACTED] in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision) as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated, or

(B) With Clerk Of District Court. — In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to lien is situated whenever the State has not so law designated one office which makes the requirements of subsection (A) or (C) with Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia in the office of the Recorder Of Deeds of the District of Columbia if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) State Or Property Subject To Lien. — For purposes of sections 6321 and 6323, property shall be deemed to be situated—

(A) Real Property. — In the case of real property, as its usual location or

(B) Personal Property. — In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of filing is filed.

For purposes of paragraph (2)(B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal office or office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is outside the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form. — The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

(ii) Refiling Of Notice. — For purposes of this section—

(A) General Rule. — Unless notice of lien is filed in the manner prescribed in subparagraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subsection (b)) after the expiration of such refiling period.

(B) Place For Filing. — A notice of lien filed during the required refiling period shall be effective only—

(i)

(ii) Such notice of lien is filed in the office in which the previous notice of lien was filed and

(iii) In the case of real property, the fact is refiling is asserted and recorded in an index in the effect required by subsection (b)(4), and

(iv) In any case in which 90 days or more prior to the date of a refiling of notice of lien under subparagraph (A), the Secretary received written information (in the manner prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary respecting a change in the taxpayer's residence) of notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (b) in the State in which such residence is located.

(3) Required Refiling Period. — In the case of any notice of lien, the term "refiling period" means—

(A) the one-year period ending 30 days after the expiration of 6 years after the date of the assessment of the tax due;

(B) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 6 years after the close of the period of assessment, starting for each notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.

(a) Release Of Lien. — Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary may issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to an internal revenue tax.

(b) Liability Satisfied Or Unenforceable. — The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, has been fully satisfied or has become legally unenforceable.

(c) Bond Accepted. — There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time) and that is in accordance with such regulations relating to terms, conditions and form of the bond and sureties thereon, as may be specified in such regulations.

Sec. 6303. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.

(a) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(1) Disclosure of amount of outstanding tax. — If a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6323(b), the amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or relates to obtain a right in such property.
