If the total of the payments made by the Mortgagee under subsection (b) of the preceding paragraph shall exceed the amount of the payments actually made by the Mortgagee for ground rents, taxes, and assessments, or insurance premiums, as the case may be, such excess, if the loan is current, at the option of the Mortgagee, shall be credited on subsequent payments to be made by the Mortgagee, or refunded to the Mortgagee. In event of foreclosure of this mortgage or other transfer of title to the mortgaged property in extinguishment of the indebtedness secured hereby, all right, title and interest of the Mortgagee in and to any insurance policies then in force shall pass to the purchaser or grantee.

That if the premises, or any part thereof, be condemned under any power of eminent domain, or acquired for a public use, the damages, proceeds, and the consideration for such acquisition, to the extent of the full amount of indebtedness upon this Mortgage, and the Note secured hereby remaining unpaid, are hereby assigned by the Mortgagee to the Mortgagee and shall be paid forthwith to the Mortgagee to be applied by it on account of the indebtedness secured hereby, whether due or not.

And in the event that the whole of said debt is declared to be due, the Mortgagee shall have the right immediately to foreclose this mortgage, and upon the filing of any bill for that purpose, the court in which such bill is filed may at any time thereafter, either before or after sale, and without notice to the said Mortgagee, or any party claiming under said Mortgagee, and without regard to the solvency or insolvency of the person or persons liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, at the time of such applications for appointment of a receiver, or for an order to place Mortgagee in possession of the premises, and without regard to the value of said premises or whether the same shall then be occupied by the owner of the equity of redemption, as a homestead, enter an order placing the Mortgagee in possession of the premises, or appoint a receiver for the benefit of the Mortgagee with power to collect the rents, issues, and profits of the said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, and such rents, issues, and profits when collected may be applied toward the payment of the indebtedness, costs, taxes, insurance, and other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the property.

Whenever the said Mortgagee shall be placed in possession of the above described premises under an order of a court in which an action is pending to foreclose this mortgage or a subsequent mortgage, the said Mortgagee, in its discretion, may: keep the said premises in good repair; pay such current or back taxes and assessments as may be due on the said premises; pay for and maintain such insurance in such amounts as shall have been required by the Mortgagee; lease the said premises to the Mortgagee or others upon such terms and conditions, either within or beyond any period of redemption, as are approved by the court; collect and receive the rents, issues, and profits for the use of the premises hereinabove described; and employ other persons and expend itself such amounts as are reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.

And there shall be included in any decree foreclosing this mortgage and be paid out of the proceeds of any sale made in pursuance of any such decree: (1) All the costs of such suit or suits, advertising, sale, and conveyance, including attorneys', solicitors', and stenographers' fees, outlays for documentary evidence and cost of said abstract and examination of title; (2) all the moneys advanced by the Mortgagee, if any, for the purpose authorized in the mortgage with interest on such advances at the rate set forth in the note secured hereby, from the time such advances are made; (3) all the accrued interest remaining unpaid on the indebtedness hereby secured; (4) all the said principal money remaining unpaid. The overplus of the proceeds of sale, if any, shall then be paid to the Mortgagee.

If Mortgagee shall pay said note at the time and in the manner aforesaid and shall abide by, comply with, and duly perform all the covenants and agreements herein, then this conveyance shall be null and void and Mortgagee will, within thirty (30) days after written demand therefor by Mortgagee, execute a release or satisfaction of this mortgage, and Mortgagee hereby waives the benefits of all statutes or laws which require the earlier execution or delivery of such release or satisfaction by Mortgagee.

It is expressly agreed that no extension of the time for payment of the debt hereby secured given by the Mortgagee to any successor in interest of the Mortgagee shall operate to release, in any manner, the original liability of the Mortgagee.
