Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes.

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a Lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchasers, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (1) has been filed by the Secretary.

(b) Protection For Certain Interests Even Though Notice Filed.—Even though notice of a lien imposed by section 6321 has been filed, such lien shall not be valid.

(1) Place For Filing Notice: Form.—

(2) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed:

(A) Under State Laws.—

(i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated, and

(ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision) as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated, or

(B) Under Federal Laws.—In the case of real property, in one office within the District of Columbia or in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision) as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated, and in the case of personal property, in one office within the District of Columbia or in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision) as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated.

(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia.—In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Status Of Property Subject To Lien.—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4) property shall be deemed to be situated—

(A) Real Property.—In the case of real property, at its physical location, or

(B) Personal Property.—in the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of lien is filed for purposes of paragraph (2)(B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form.—The form and content of the rule referred to in subsection (2) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

(g) Refiling Of Notice.—For purpose of this section—

(1) General Rule.—Unless notice of lien is filed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subsection (1)) after the expiration of such refiling period.

(2) Place For Filing.—A notice of lien filed during the required refiling period shall be effective only if—

(A) it is filed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2); and (B) it is filed in the office of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia or in the office of the recorder of deeds of the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision) in which the property subject to the lien is situated.

(3) In Any Case In Which 90 Days Or More Pass To The Date Of Filing Of Notice Of Lien Under Subparagraph (A).—If the Secretary receives written information on the number prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (b) in the State in which such residence is located,

(3) Required Refiling Period.—In the case of any notice of lien, the term "required refiling period" means—

(A) the one-year period ending 30 days after the expiration of 6 years after the date of the assessment of the tax; and

(B) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 5 years after the close of the preceding required refiling period for such notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.

(a) Release Of Lien.—Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any individual return for not later than 30 days after the day on which—

(1) Validity Satisfied Or Unenforceable.—The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, has been fully satisfied or has become legally unenforceable; or

(2) Bond Accepted.—There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law, including any extension of such time, and that is made payable to such requirements relating to terms, conditions and form of the bond and satisfies therefor as may be specified in such regulations.

Sec. 6103. Confidentiality and disclosure of returns and return information.

(b) Disclosure Of Certain Returns And Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(1) Disclosure Of Amount Of Outstanding Lien.—If a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6321, the amount of the outstanding obligation described in such lien may be disclosed to any person who, to such extent, wishes to disclose that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.
