1. The registered office may, but need not be the same as the principal office of the corporation. However, the registered office and the office address of the agent must be the same.
2. The registered office must be in Illinois and must be a street or road address, not a post office box number.
3. A registered agent may change the address of his registered office of the corporation, for which he is registered agent, to another address in this State.
4. If the registered office is changed from one county to another, then the corporation must file with the recorder of deeds of the new county a certified copy of the articles of incorporation and a certified copy of the statement of the change of registered office. Such certified copies may be obtained only from the Secretary of State.
5. A corporation cannot act as its own registered agent.
