Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes.

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto, shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person, except as provided in section 6322.

Sec. 6322. Period of Lien.

Unless specifically provided by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment of the taxes and shall continue until the liability for the taxes so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchasers, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors. — The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor who notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (b) has been filed by the Secretary.

(b) Protection For Certain Interests Even Though Notice Filed. — Even though notice of a lien imposed by section 6321 has been filed, such lien shall not be valid.

(c) Place For Filing Notice; Form.

(1) Place For Filing. — The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed — 2 copies
(A) Under State Laws —

(i) Real Property — In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and

(ii) Personal Property — In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the state (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; or

(B) With Clerk Of District Court. — In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated the office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A) in

(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia. — In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Situs Of Property Subject To Lien. — For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4) property shall be deemed to be situated —

(A) Real Property. — In the case of real property, in the general location of

(B) Tangible Property. — In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of lien is filed for purposes of paragraph (2) (B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place in which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form. — The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

(d) Renewing Of Notice. — For purposes of this section —

(1) General Rule. — Unless notice of lien is filed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required renfiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subsection (1)) after the expiration of such renfiling period.

(2) Place For Filing. — A notice of lien filed during the required renfiling period shall be effective only —

(A) If — 1 copy
(i) each notice of lien is filed in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed, and

(ii) in the case of real property, the fact of filing is entered and recorded in an index to

(3) Renewed. — 1 copy
(A) in any case in which 90 days or more prior to the date of a renfiling of notices of lien under subparagraph (A), the Secretary received written information (in the manner prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary) concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (1) in the State in which such residence is located.
