6. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this Trust Deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency at the time of application of such receiver, of the person or persons, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit, and in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further time when First Party, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this Trust Deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

7. Trustee or the holders of the Note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

8. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this Trust Deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

9. Trustee shall release this Trust Deed and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed has been fully paid, and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the Note representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representing Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor Trustee, such successor Trustee may accept as the genuine Note herein described any Note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior Trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the Note and which purports to be executed on behalf of First Party; and where the release is requested of the original Trustee and it has never executed a certificate on any instrument identifying same as the Note described herein, it may accept as the genuine Note herein described any Note which may be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the Note, and which purports to be executed on behalf of First Party.

10. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. In case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act of Trustee, the then Recorder of Deeds of the county in which the premises are situated shall be Successor in Trust. Any Successor in Trust hereunder shall have the identical title, powers and authority as are herein given Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.

11. Upon request from the holders of the Note, the First Party, in addition to the principal interest payment provided for therein shall deposit monthly with the holders of the Note on the dates the aforesaid payments are due, a sum equal to 1/12 of the general real estate taxes levied against the premises and/or the cost of insurance on the premises in an amount not less than the lien hereof, to be applied on account of said taxes and/or said insurance when the same shall become due, using the amount of the last available tax and/or insurance bill, whatever the case may be, as a basis for the respective deposits. No interest shall be paid by the holders of the Note secured hereby, on account of said deposit for taxes and/or insurance. There shall be no obligation upon the holders of the Note to obtain any tax and/or insurance bill, or to pay any tax and/or insurance bill, except upon presentation of the current bill by the First Party, provided that the sum of the deposits then available is sufficient to cover the cost of the same.

12. Notwithstanding any thing here before stated, First Party hereby waives any and all rights or redemption from sale under order or decree of foreclosure of this Trust Deed on behalf of the First Party and each and every person, except decree or judgment creditors of First Party, acquiring any interest in or title to said premises subsequent to the date hereof.

13. Without the advanced written consent of the holders of the Note, First Party does hereby irrevocably agree that it will not transfer, convey or cause to be transferred or conveyed or suffer an involuntary transfer or conveyance of the premises or the beneficial interest in the trust holding title to the premises, including the transfer of possession of the premises pursuant to the sale of the premises or the agreement for the issuance of a Warranty Deed, or otherwise, so long as the debt secured hereby subsists, and further, in the event of any such transfer by the First Party without the advanced written consent of the holders of the Note, the holders of the Note, in their sole discretion, and without notice to the First Party, may declare the whole of the debt secured hereby immediately due and payable and such transfer or conveyance shall be null and void. The acceptance of any payment after any such transfer or conveyance shall not be construed as the consent of the holders of the Note to such transfer, nor shall it affect the right of the holders of the Note to proceed with such action as the holders of the Note shall deem necessary.

14. In the event the premises, or any part thereof are taken through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, the entire award for damages to the premises shall be the sole property of the holders of the Note, and shall be used and applied in reduction of the indebtedness due under said Note, in such order as the holders of the Note shall determine in their sole discretion, and the First Party hereby assigns to the holders of the Note, all right, title and interest in and to any award made pursuant to the proceedings wherein such power of eminent domain has been exercised and hereby authorizes and empowers the holders of the Note to receive and give acquittance therefor to make, execute and deliver in the name of the First Party or any subsequent owner of premises, any release or other instrument that may be required to recover any such award; and to endorse checks in the name of the First Party.

15. In the event that the insurance proceeds are payable with respect to any claim arising out of policies that the First Party is required to maintain pursuant to subparagraph 9 of paragraph 1 hereof, the entire proceeds shall be the sole property of the holders of the Note and shall be used and applied in reduction of the indebtedness due hereunder, in such order as the holders of the Note shall determine in their sole discretion, and the First Party hereby assigns to the holders of the Note all its right, title and interest in and to such proceeds, and hereby authorizes and empowers the holders of the Note to receive and give acquittance therefor to make execute and deliver in the name of the First Party, or any subsequent owner of the premises, any release, proof of claim, or other instrument that may be required to recover the insurance proceeds; and to endorse checks in the name of the First Party. At the option of the holders of the Note and in their sole discretion, without any obligation to do so, the insurance proceeds may be used to repair, restore or rebuild any buildings or improvements now or hereafter on the premises which may become damaged or destroyed. Refusal on the part of the holders of the Note to release the insurance proceeds for any such repairs, restoration or rebuilding shall not relieve the First Party of its obligations under paragraph 1 hereof.
