K. That upon the commencement of any foreclosure proceeding hereunder, the court in which such bill is filed may at any time, either before or after sale, and without notice to the Mortgagor, or any party claiming under him, and without regard to the solvency of the Mortgagor or the then value of said premises, or whether the same shall then be occupied by the owner of the equity of redemption as a homestead, appoint a receiver with power to manage and rent and to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and the statutory period of redemption; and such rents, issues and profits, when collected, may be applied before as well as after the sale, towards the payment of the indebtedness, costs, taxes, insurance or other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the property, including the expenses of such receivership, or on any deficiency decree whether there be a decree therefor in personam or not, and if a receiver shall be appointed he shall remain in possession until the expiration of the full period allowed by statute for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, and until the issuance of deed in case of sale, but if no deed be issued, until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued and no lease of said premises shall be nullified by the appointment or entry in possession of a receiver but he may elect to terminate any lease junior to the lien hereof.

L. That each right, power and remedy herein conferred upon the Mortgagor is cumulative of every other right or remedy of the Mortgagor, whether herein or by law conferred, and may be enforced concurrently therewith, that no waiver by the Mortgagor of performance of any covenant herein or in said obligation contained shall thereafter in any manner affect the right of Mortgagor to require or enforce performance of the same or any other of said covenants; that wherever the context hereof requires, the masculine gender, as used herein, shall include the feminine and the neuter and the singular number, as used herein, shall include the plural; that all rights and obligations under this mortgage shall extend to and be binding upon the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the Mortgagor, and the successors and assigns of the Mortgagor; and that the powers herein mentioned may be exercised as often as occasion therefor arises.

M. The corporate Trustee named herein being duly authorized to do so, by the trust instrument or by any persons having a power of direction over the Trustee does hereby waive any and all rights of redemption from sale under any order or decree foreclosing this mortgage, unless this mortgage, at the time of the execution hereof, covers any land which is improved with a dwelling for not more than four families or is given to secure a loan to be used, in whole or in part, to finance the construction of a dwelling for not more than four families or is used or intended to be used for agricultural purposes.

N. The right is hereby reserved by the Mortgagor to make partial release or releases of the mortgaged premises hereunder without notice to, or the consent, approval or agreement of other parties in interest, including junior liens, which partial release or releases shall not impair in any manner the validity of or priority of this mortgage on the mortgaged premises remaining, nor release any guarantor, co-signer, surety or endorser from personal liability for the indebtedness hereby secured.

O. This mortgage is executed by the undersigned not personally but as Trustee as aforesaid in the exercise of the power and authority conferred upon and vested in it as such Trustee and said undersigned hereby warrants that it possesses full power and authority to execute this instrument and it is expressly understood and agreed that nothing herein or in said note contained shall be construed as creating any liability on the said undersigned, either individually or as Trustee aforesaid, personally, to pay the said note or any interest that may accrue thereon, or any indebtedness accruing hereunder, or to perform any covenant either express or implied herein contained, all such liability, if any, being expressly waived by the Mortgagor and by every person now or hereafter claiming any right or security hereunder, and that so far as the undersigned, either individually or as Trustee aforesaid, or its successors, personally are concerned, the legal holder or holders of said note and the owner or owners of any indebtedness accruing hereunder shall look solely to the premises hereby conveyed for the payment thereof, by the enforcement of the lien hereby created in the manner herein and in said note provided or by action to enforce the personal liability of the guarantor, co-signer, surety or endorser, if any.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned corporation, not personally but as Trustee as aforesaid, has caused these presents to be signed by its Asst. Vice President and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and attested by its Vice President assumption of the boundedness of $\{x_n\}$ and the property of any point x in S to be a limit point of $\{x_n\}$. Since x is a limit point of $\{x_n\}$, there exists a subsequence $\{x_{n_k}\}$ of $\{x_n\}$ such that $x_{n_k} \rightarrow x$. By the definition of the metric space, we have $d(x, x_{n_k}) < \epsilon$ for all $k \in \mathbb{N}$. Since $x_{n_k} \in S$ for all $k \in \mathbb{N}$, it follows that $d(x, S) = 0$. This contradicts the fact that $d(x, S) > 0$. Therefore, S is closed.
