9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this mortgage the court to which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Mortgagee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this Mortgage or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

12. If Mortgagors shall sell, assign or transfer any right, title or interest in said premises, or any portion thereof, without the written consent of the holder of the contract secured hereby, holder shall have the right, at holder's option, to declare all unpaid indebtedness secured by this mortgage to be immediately due and payable, anything in said contract or this mortgage to the contrary notwithstanding.
