commencement of any suit for the foreclosure, record after record of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; (c) preparations for the defense of the threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

8. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the note; fourth, any overplus to Mortgagors, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns, as their rights may appear.

9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the note hereby secured.

11. Trustee or the holder of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

13. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the note, representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as the makers thereof; and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never executed a certificate on any instrument identifying same as the note described herein, it may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which may be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.

14. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. In case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act of Trustee, then Chicago Title and Trust Company shall be the first Successor in Trust, and in case of its resignation, inability or refusal to act the then Recorder of Deeds of the county in which the premises are situated shall be second Successor in Trust. Any Successor in Trust hereunder shall have the identical title, powers and authority as are herein given Trustee, and any Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.

15. This Trust Deed and all provisions hereof, shall extend to and be binding upon Mortgagors and all persons claiming under or through Mortgagors, and the word "Mortgagors" when used herein shall include all such persons and all persons liable for the payment of the indebtedness or any part thereof, whether or not such persons shall have executed the note or this Trust Deed.

Written the hands and seals of Mortgagors the day and year first above written.

7. When the indebtedness hereof, the note or Trustee shall have the right to foreclose the lien hereof, in any suit to foreclose all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Trustee or holder of the note for attorney's fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentation and expenses of the note, to be expended after entry of the decree of proclamating it such abstracts of title, little seafarers and mariners, garnisshee, claimants, and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute or defend suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. All expenses and expenses of collection or garnishment, or of the note, to be expended by Trustee or holders of the note, shall be a party, either as Plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this suit, to defend or vindicate his/her or its rights, either in law or equity, or to collect or recover any sum due and payable, with interest thereon at the maximum rate permitted by law per annum, when paid or incurred by Trustee or holders of the note in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate or administration of the estate or assets of the deceased, or (b) proceedings for the distribution of the assets of the deceased, to whom either of them shall be a party, either as Plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by Trustee or holders of the note in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate or administration of the estate or assets of the deceased, or (b) proceedings for the distribution of the assets of the deceased.

6. Mortgagors shall pay each item of imbeddedness heretofore mentioned, both principal and interest, when due according to the terms hereof. At the option of the holder or of the trustee, and without notice to Mortgagors, all imbeddedness secured by this Trust Deed to the contrary, become due and payable at once or in this Trust Deed to the holder, by whom it is held, no notice being given.

5. The Trustee or the holders of the note hereby secured make any payment authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such statement or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title of claim thereof.

2. Mortgagors shall pay before any penalties all general taxes, and shall pay special taxes, special assessments, water charges, sewer service charges, and other charges when due, and shall prevent default hereunder by paying in full under protest, in the manner provided by statute, any tax or assessment which mortgageurs may desire to contest.

1. Mortgagees shall (1) promptly repair, restore or refund any buildings or improvements now or hereafter on the premises which may become damaged or destroyed; (2) keep said premises in good condition and repair, without waste, and free from mechanical defects or other causes of damage for the benefit of the lessor; (3) pay when due any indebtedness which accrued by a lessor or charge on the premises superior to the lessor's, and upon demand of the lessor; (4) complete within a reasonable time any building or buildings now or at any time in process of erection upon said premises; (5) comply with all requirements of law or municipal ordinances with respect to the premises; (6) make no material alterations in said premises except as required by law or municipal ordinance.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERTOOED AND AGREED THAT:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the premises unto the said Trustee, its successors and assigns, forever, for the purposes, and upon the uses and trusts herein set forth, free from all rights and burdens, and benefits the Mortgagor do hereby expressly release and waive.

doors and windows, door coverings, ladder beds, awnings, shades and water heaters. All of the foregoing are declared to be a part of said real estate whether physically situated thereto or not, and it is agreed that all similar apparatus, equipment or articles heretofore placed in the premises by the mortgagors or their successors or assigns shall be considered as constituting part of the real estate.
