3. That the claimant has furnished the said lumber and building materials to the extent required by its contract with OLD CHICAGO REMODELING, INC., all of which were furnished and delivered to and used in and about the improvement of the premises and of the building and other improvements thereon. The prices charged for the said lumber and building materials were and are the fair, usual, customary and reasonable charges for such lumber and building materials.
4. That there is now justly due and owing to the claimant for the furnishing and delivery of the said lumber and building materials, after deducting all credits, the sum of Four-thousand seven-hundred sixty-seven and 22/100 ($4,767.22) Dollars, which is still due and unpaid. Notice has been given to the owners and the contractor in the manner provided by law, not less than ten days prior hereto, said notice having been forwarded and served on February 22, 1988.
5. That the claimant now claims a lien upon the above described premises and all improvements thereon against all persons interested, and also claims a lien upon the monies or other consideration due from the aforesaid owners, or from the contractor, for the sum of Four-thousand seven-hundred sixty-seven and 22/100 ($4,767.22) Dollars, together with interest as provided by statute.

Dated this 5th day of March, 1988.
