

commencement of any suit for the foreclosure herein after a cross of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

8. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the note; fourth, any overplus to Mortgagors, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns, as their rights may appear.

9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the note hereby secured.

11. Trustee or the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

13. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the note, representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as the makers thereof; and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never executed a certificate on any instrument identifying same as the note described herein, it may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which may be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.

14. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. In case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act of Trustee, then Chicago Title and Trust Company shall be the first Successor in Trust, and in case of its resignation, inability or refusal to act the then Recorder of Deeds of the county in which the premises are situated shall be second Successor in Trust. Any Successor in Trust hereunder shall have the identical title, powers and authority as are herein given Trustee, and any Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.

15. This Trust Deed and all provisions hereof, shall extend to and be binding upon Mortgagors and all persons claiming under or through Mortgagors, and the word "Mortgagors" when used herein shall include all such persons and all persons liable for the payment of the indebtedness or any part thereof, whether or not such persons shall have executed the note or this Trust Deed.

7. When the indebtedness hereto shall have the right to accelerate the lien hereof, in any suit to foreclose, holders of the note or Trustee shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid by or on behalf of Trustee or hold-ers of the note for attorney's fees, trustee's fees, appraisal fees, outlays for documentation and ex-pert evidence, stenographers' charges, publication costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the decree) of procuring all such abstracts of title, title examinants, guardians, trustees certificates, and similar data and assurances with respect to title or to bidders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to defend the note or to holders of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the title as Trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonable either to prosecute such suit or to defend the note or to holders of the premises. Any sale which may be had pursuant to such action of the title to the bidder who offers the highest bid, shall be made at the time and place and under the direction of the Trustee or holders of the note, and the Trustee or holders of the note shall be entitled to receive the amount so realized, less the amount of the principal sum and interest accrued up to the date of sale, and the amount of the premium, if any, provided for in the note.

6. Mortgagors shall pay each item of indebtedness hereinafter mentioned, both principal and interest, when due according to the terms hereof. At the option of the Holders of the Notes, and without notice to Mortgagors, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed to the Holders of the Notes, and without notice to Mortgagors, at any time during the period of three years from the date of this Note, or in the case of default in making payment of any instalment of principal or interest on the note, or (b) when default shall occur and continue for three days in the performance of any other agreement of the Holders hereinafter contained.

5. The trustee or the holder of the note hereby secures making a day payment hereby authorized from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title of claim thereto.

3. Mortgagors shall keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter situated on said premises insured against loss or damage by fire, lightning or windstorm under policies providing for payment by the insurance companies of money sufficient either to pay the cost of replacing or repairing the same or to pay in full the indebtedness secured hereby, all in compensation or repair of the holder of the note, under insurance policies payable in case of loss of or damage to the buildings or the note, unless otherwise provided in the note.

2. Mortgagors shall pay before any penalty attaches all general taxes, and shall pay special taxes, special assessments, water charges, sewer service charges, and other charges when due, as well, upon written notice to themselves or to holders of the note except in cases where payment by the mortgagor may result in full under protest, in the manner provided by statute, may tax or assessment which mortgagors may desire to contest.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED THAT:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the premises unto the said Trustee, its successors and assigns, for ever, for the purposes, and upon the uses and trusts herein set forth, free from all rights and burdens that the Premises do hereby expressly release and waive.
