CHICAGO, ILLINOIS - DEFENDANT, ROBERT F. KENNEDY, JR., was indicted on charges that he was guilty of mail fraud in connection with his campaign for the Democratic nomination for President of the United States.

The indictment charged that Kennedy had received $125,000 in illegal contributions from James J. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union.

Kennedy's defense team denied that he had accepted any illegal contributions and maintained that he was the victim of a political plot.

Defendant's defense team filed a motion for a change of venue to another federal court.

The defense team also filed a motion to suppress evidence seized during a search of Kennedy's Chicago office.

Defense attorney Edward S. Reilly told U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica that he had obtained affidavits from three former members of the Teamsters Union.

Judge Sirica denied the defense's motion.

Defense attorney Reilly said that he would appeal the decision to the U.S. Court of Appeals.

He said that he would also file a motion for a change of venue to another federal court.
