6. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solventy or insolvency at the time of application for such receiver, of the person or persons, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and without regard to the then value of the premises, notwithstanding the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure proceedings, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be recompensation or not, and, if any, during any further time when First Party, its successors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of (a) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become subservient to the lien hereof or any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become subservient to the lien hereof, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (b) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

Acceptance by the Mortgagee of any mortgage payments made by any person or persons other than the Mortgagor shall not be deemed a waiver by the Mortgagee of its rights to require or enforce performance of this provision or to exercise the remedies hereunder. For the purposes of this provision, the word "person" means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, any unincorporated organization, or a governmental or political subdivision thereof or any one or more or combination of the foregoing. Whenever the Mortgagee shall elect to declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable in accordance with this provision, it shall give written notice to the Mortgagor and to the Mortgagor's successors in title not less than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of such acceleration. Such notice shall be deemed to have been given upon the mailing thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the last known address of the Mortgagor and of the Mortgagor's successors in title as recorded upon the books of the Mortgagee, but if no such address be so recorded then to the address of the mortgaged property.
