6. That my family, i.e. my mother and father and the heirs listed above, have been in exclusive possession of the property since 1967. The real estate taxes are paid to date and were paid by my father until his death. At present, he collects rents from the storefront and two apartments located on the premises.

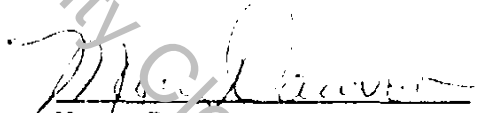

7. That all the utility bills were paid by my family. All repairs to the apartments and the storefront of whatever type and nature were paid for by my family. Such repairs include repairs to the roof and plumbing. My brother is still responsible for the repairs to the building.

8. That my mother also has children from her marriage, all of whom were adults at the time of the purchase of the above property. They are Thomas Hallman, Barbara Hallman Smith, Yvonne Hallman, William Hallman and Arlene Hallman Jones. These children never lived in the above property and never contributed labor, money or resources of whatever type towards its upkeep or maintenance. The mortgage was the sole responsibility of my father until his disability in 1982.

9. That I, as the Executor of the Estate of Marion Dawson, am presently bound by a contract of sale to sell the property for a purchase price of $25,000.00.

Further affiant saith not.
