4. If, by the laws of the United States of America or of any state having jurisdiction in the premises, any tax is due or becomes due in respect of the issuance of the note hereby secured, the Mortgagee covenant and agree to pay such tax in the manner required by any such law, against any liability incurred by reason of the imposition of any tax on the issuance of the note secured hereby.

5. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgages at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not, and the Mortgagee may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further time when Mortgages, except for the intention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period.
