The Grantor covenant and agree as follows: 1. To pay said indebtedness, and the interest thereon, before and in said notes provided, or according to any agreement extending time of payment; 2. To pay prior to the first day of June in each year all taxes and assessments against said premises, and to demand to exhibit receipts therefor; 3. Within 10 days after receipt of written notice to do so, to place such insurance on said premises as the grantor may desire, that may have been destroyed or damaged; 4. That waste to said premises shall not be committed or suffered; 5. To keep all buildings now or at any time on said premises insured in companies to be selected by the grantee herein, who is hereby authorized to place such insurance in companies acceptable to the holder of the first mortgage indebtedness, with loss clause attached, and subject to the first Trustee or Mortgagor, and, second, to the Trustee herein as their interests may appear, which policies shall be held and remain with the said Mortgagor or Trustee until the indebtedness is fully paid; 6. To pay all prior encumbrances, and the interest thereon, at the time or times when the same shall become due and payable;

In the Event of failure so to insure, or pay taxes or assessments, or the prior encumbrances or the interest thereon, when due, the grantee or the holder of said indebtedness, may procure such insurance or pay such taxes or assessments or discharge or purchase any tax lien or title affecting said premises, at all prior encumbrances and the interest thereon from time to time, and all money so paid, the grantor agrees to repay immediately without demand, and the same with interest, accrued from the date of payment at seven per cent, per annum, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby;

In the Event of a breach of any of the aforesaid covenants and agreements the whole of said indebtedness, including principal and accrued interest shall, at the option of the legal holder thereof, without notice, become immediately due and payable, and with interest thereon from time of such breach at seven per cent, per annum, shall be recoverable by foreclosure thereof, or by suit at law, or both, the same as if all of said indebtedness had then matured by express terms;

It is Agreed by the grantor that all expenses and disbursements paid or incurred in behalf of or on account in connection with the foreclosure, or suit, including reasonable solicitors fees, outlays for documentary evidence, stenographer's charges, cost of procuring or completing abstract showing the whole title of said premises or tracing foreclosure decree shall be paid by the grantor, and the like expenses and disbursements occasioned by any suit or proceeding wherein the grantee or any holder of any part of said indebtedness, as such, may be a party, shall also be paid by the grantor. All such expenses and disbursements shall be an additional lien upon said premises, shall be taxed as costs and included in any decree that may be rendered in such foreclosure proceedings, which proceeding, whether decree or suit, shall have been entered or not, shall not be dissolved, nor a release given, until all such expenses and disbursements, and the costs of such proceedings, shall have been paid. The grantor, for said grantor and of the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said grantor, waive all right to the possession of, and income from, said premises pending such foreclosure proceedings, and agree that upon the filing of any bill to foreclose this Trust Deed, the court in which such bill is filed, may at once and without notice to the said grantor, or to any party claiming under said grantor, appoint a receiver to take possession or charge of said premises with power to collect the rents, issues, and profits of the said premises.

In the Event of the death, removal or absence from said
