And Whereas, the same not having been redeemed from said sale, and it appearing that the holder of the Certificate of Purchase of said real estate has complied with the laws of the State of Illinois, necessary to entitle him to a Deed of said real estate, as found and ordered by the Circuit Court of Cook County:

Now, Therefore, Know ye that I, STANLEY T. KUSPER, JR., County Clerk of said County of Cook, residing and having my postoffice address at 5445 N. Sheridan Rd., Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, in consideration of the premises, and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Illinois, in such cases provided, do hereby grant and convey unto the State of Illinois Medical Center Commission residing and having his/(her/ by their) residence and postoffice address at 736 South Ashland Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, 60607, his/(her/ by their) heirs and assigns FOREVER, the said Real Estate hereinabove described.

The following provisions of the Revised Statutes of said State of Illinois, being Section 752 of Chapter 120 is recited, pursuant to law:
"Unless the holder of the certificate for real estate purchased at any tax sale under this act takes out the deed in the time by law, and files the same for record within one year from and after the time for redemption expires, the said certificate or deed, and the sale on which it is based, shall, from and after the expiration of such one year, be absolutely null and void with no right to reimbursement. If the holder of such certificate is prevented from obtaining such deed by injunction or order of any court, or by the refusal or inability of any court to act upon the application for a tax deed, or by refusal of the clerk to execute the same, the time he is so prevented shall be excluded from the computation of such time."

Given under my hand and seal, this 9th day of June A. D. 1987.
