- 11. The instalment note secured by this Trust Deed may be proposed in whole or in part on any interest payment date without the payment of any promium whatsoever.
- 12. To provide for payment of taxes, assessments and insurance premiums, stipulated to be paid hereunder, the Mortgagor shall deposit with the Holders of the Note on each monthly payment date an amount equal to one-twelfth of the annual taxes and assessments levied against said premises, and one-twelfth of the annual premium on all such insurance as estimated by the Holders of the Note, All such deposits as made are pledged as additional security for the payment of the instalment note. The records of the Holders of the Note shall reflect at all times the amount of such deposits, and the Holders of the Note may comingle such funds with other funds or its own funds and make advancements for the payment of such items. At no time shall interest or income be paid to the Mortgagor for the deposit or use of such funds. If default is made in the payment of said deposits, the Holders of the Note may, at its option, charge the same to the unpaid balance of the instalment note and the same shall bear interest at the same rate as the instalment note. As taxes and assessments become due and payable and as insurance policies expire, or premiums thereon recome due, the Holders of the Note are authorized to use such deposits for the purpose of caying taxes or assessments or renewing insurance policies or paying premiums thereon. In the event any deficit shall exist or the deposits are so reduced that the remaining deposits together with the monthly deposits will not provide sufficient funds to pay the then current calendar year's estimated taxes or the estimated insurance premium on the last day of said year, the Holders of the Note may, at its option, either declare immediately due and payable or add to the unpaid balance of the instalment note secured hereby such a sum which shall, together with the remaining deposits and monthly deposits, provide sufficient funds to pay one year's estimated taxes or insurance premiums on the last day of said year.
- 13.
