All money paid for any of the purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith, including attorney's fees, and any other monies advanced by Trustee or the holders of the note to protect the mortgaged premises and the lien hereunder, plus reasonable compensation to Trustee for each matter concerning which action herein authorized may be taken, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum. No action of Trustee or holders of the note shall never be considered as a waiver of any right accruing to them on account of any of the provisions of this paragraph.

2. The Trustee or the holders of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

3. At the option of the holders of the note and without notice to First Party, its successors or assigns, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this trust deed shall, notwithstanding anything in the note or in this trust deed to the contrary, become due and payable (a) immediately in the case of default in making payment of any installment of principal or interest on the note, or (b) in the event of the failure of First Party or its successors or assigns to do any of the things specifically set forth in paragraph one hereto and such default shall continue for three days, and option to be exercised at any time after the expiration of said three day period.

4. When the indebtedness hereby secured shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, holders of the note or Trustee shall have the right to foreclose the lien herein. In any suit to foreclose the lien herein, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Trustee or holders of the note for attorney's fees, trustee's fees, appraiser's fees, notary for documentary and expert evidence, stenographers' charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the decree) of presenting all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, guarantee policies, trustees certificates, and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to holders of any suit which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of the title as to the value of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum, when paid or incurred by Trustee or holders of the note in connection with (a) any proceedings, including probate and bankruptcy proceedings, in which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this trust deed or any indebtedness hereby secured; (b) the preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security herein, whether or not actually commenced.

5. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses made by or in the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph herein; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the note; fourth, any surplus to First Party, its legal representatives or assigns, as their rights may appear.

6. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without regard to the solvent or insolvency at the time of application for such receiver, or the amount of debts, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall have occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when First Party, its successors or assigns, except for the interests in it of such receiver, should be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The longer from time to time may subsist the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness secured hereby, or (2) any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be hereinafter superior to the lien herein or in such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency, in case of a sale and deficiency.

7. Trustee or the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

8. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to execute any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct in that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

9. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereon by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver a release herein to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the note representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representative Trustee may accept at time without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successive trustee, such successive trustee may accept as the legitimate mortgagee described in note which bears a certificate of authentication purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which contains no substance with the description herein contained of the note, or which purports to be executed on behalf of First Party; and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never executed a certificate, or is an instrument identical in substance with the note described herein, it may accept as the legitimate mortgagee described as above which may be presented, and which contains no substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed on behalf of First Party.

10. Trustee may record by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed, in case of the renunciation, inability or refusal to act of Trustee, the then Recorder of Deeds of the county in which the premises are situated shall be successor in Trust, his successor in Trust hereunder shall have the identical title, powers and authority as are herein given Trustee, and any Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.

It is expressly agreed and understood by and between the parties hereto that in the event of the sale of the property, execution of Articles of Agreement, transfer of title or change in the beneficial ownership to the aforementioned described real estate,

At maturity, you must repay the entire principal balance of the loan and interest then due. This loan matures and is payable in full at the end of ONE (1) YEAR. The bank is under no obligation to refinance the loan at maturity. You will therefore be required to make payment out of other assets you may own, or you will have to find a lender willing to lend you the money at prevailing market rates, which may be considerably higher than the interest rate on this loan.

In the event the mortgagor fails to make a payment of any installment of principal and interest as agreed, and such default continues for 11 days, the holder reserves the right in such event to assess a charge of 5% of the principal and interest amount of such delinquency payment as a "LATE CHARGE" the foregoing right being in addition to all other rights and remedies granted to the holder hereof.
