8. If Mortgagee makes any payment authorized by this Mortgagee relating to taxes, assessments, charges, liens, security interests or encumbrances, Mortgagee may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate received from the appropriate party claiming such funds without inquiry into the accuracy or validity of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of the lien, encumbrance, security interest, tax, assessment, sale, foreclosure, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

The receiver's appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the sovereignty or nationality of Mortgagee at the time of application for the receiver and without regard to the then value of the Premises or whether the Premises shall be then occupied as a homestead or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagee, except for the intervention of the receiver, would be entitled to collect the rents, issues and profits. Such receiver shall also have all other powers which may be necessary or usual for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the Premises. The court in which the foreclosure suit is filed may from time to time authorize the receiver to apply the net income in the receiver's hands in payment or in part of the indebtedness secured hereby, or secured by any judgment foreclosing this Mortgagee, or any tax, special assessment or other lien or encumbrance which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of the judgment, and the deficiency judgment against Mortgagee or any guarantor of the Note in case of a foreclosure sale and deficiency.
