Notice of Tax Lien

vs.

United States

No. _____

Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable, whichever comes first.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The naming and by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (b) has been filed by the Secretary.

(b) Place For Filing Notice; Form.—

- (1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed:
 - (A) Under State Laws.
 - (i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated, and
 - (ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (or the county or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated, or
 - (B) With Clerk Of District Court in the office of the clerk of the United States district court to the judicial district in which the property subject to lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A), or
 - (C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Style Of Property Subject To Lien.—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4) property shall be deemed to be situated:

- (a) Real Property.—In the case of real property, at its physical location or
- (b) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, wherever it is located, or at the residence of the taxpayer, if at the time the notice of lien is filed.

For purposes of paragraph (3) the office of the corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal office or 25% of the business is located, and the residence of a sole proprietor or partner is located in the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form.—The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be prescribed by the Secretary, such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law requiring the filing of a copy of the notice.

Note: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

1. Mortgages
2. Mortgages
3. Encumbrances on purchased property
4. Personal property, such as fixtures, machinery, and equipment
5. Real property tax and other similar taxes
6. Unpaid property taxes and other amounts due under contracts for certain rentals and leases
7. Attorney fees
8. Certain insurance contracts
9. Partnership agreements

(c) Refiling Of Notice. — For purposes of this section:

(i) General Rule.—Unless notice of lien is filed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (3) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed in accordance with subsection (a) after the expiration of such refiling period.

(ii) Place For Filing.—A notice of lien filed during the required refiling period shall be effective only if:

- A. it is filed in the office where the original notice of lien was filed, and
- B. in the case of real property, the fact of filing is acknowledged and recorded in or made to the office recited in subsection (b)(4); and
- C. in any case in which 60 days or more prior to the date of filing of notice of lien under subparagraph (a) the Secretary received written information (in the manner prescribed in regulation issued by the Secretary) concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (b) in the State in which such residence is located.

(d) Required Refiling Period.—In the case of any notice of lien, the term "refiling period" means:

- (A) the one-year period ending 30 days after the expiration of 6 years after the date of the assessment of the tax, and
- (B) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 6 years after the date of the preceding required refiling period for such notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.

Release Of Lien.—Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any income, revenue due not later than 30 days after the day on which:

(1) The tax is paid to the Secretary. The Secretary shall make the tax available to the collector together with all the information required therefor before the tax is collected or before the tax is deposited in the Treasury.

(2) Bond A deposit thereon is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him in a sum that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount attached together with an interest in respect thereof with the rate prescribed by law, including any extension of judgment, and that is in accordance with such requirements relating to the amount, and term of the bond and interest thereon, as may be specified by such regulation.

Sec. 6323. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.

(e) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(1) Disclosure of amount of outstanding tax if a notice of tax has been filed pursuant to section 6321, the amount of the outstanding obligation required by law, and may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such tax or intends to obtain a right in such property.
