Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or alternative penalty, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto, that he is liable in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of the time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (b) has been filed by the Secretary.

(i) Place For Filing Notice; Form.—

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (b) shall be filed:

(A) Under State Laws

(i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and

(ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; or

(B) With Clerk Of District Court. In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or

(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia. In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Status Of Property Subject To Lien.—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2) property that is deemed to be situated:

(A) Real Property.—In the case of real property, at its physical location;

(B) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, where the owner maintains his residence or the principal place of business at the time the notice of lien is filed;

For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "residence" means a principal place of abode or the place where the principal part of the personal property of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form.—The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law requiring the form or content of notice.

Note: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

- 1 Securities
- 2 Motor vehicles
- 3 Personal property purchased at retail
- 4 Personal property purchased in bulk or in lots
- 5 Personal property subjected to possessory lien
- 6 Real property for which assessment has been made

- 8 Attorney's fees
- 9 Certain insurance contracts
- 10 Partnership debts

(g) Refiling Of Notice.—For purposes of this section:

(1) General Rule.—Unless notice of lien is filed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subsection (b)) after the expiration of such refiling period.

(2) Place For Filing.—A notice of lien referred during the required refiling period shall be effective only:

(A) If:

(i) such notice of lien is filed in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed; and

(ii) in the case of real property, the fact of filing is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (b)(4); and

(B) in any case in which, 90 days or more prior to the date of a refiling of notice of lien under subsection (A), the

Secretary received written information (in the manner prescribed in regulation issued by the Secretary) concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence, if a notice of such lien is filed in accordance with subsection (b) in the State in which such residence is located.

(e) Required Refiling Period.—In the case of a notice of lien, the term "required refiling period" means:

- (A) the one-year period ending 60 days after the expiration of 6 years after the date of the assessment of the tax; and
- (B) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 6 years after the date of the preceding required refiling period for such notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.

(a) Release Of Lien.—Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the day on which:

(1) Liability Established Or Unforfeited.—The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount asserted, together with all interest in respect thereof, has been fully established or has become unenforceable.

(2) Bond Accepted.—There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount asserted, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law (including any extensions of time), and that is in accordance with such requirements relating to terms, conditions, and form of the bond and satisfies the requirements as may be specified by such regulations.

Sec. 6103. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.

(a) Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(i) Disclosure of amount of outstanding tax if a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6323(b), the amount of the outstanding tax (as required by subsection (b)) may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.
