8. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this mortgage, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency at the time of application for such receiver, of the person or persons, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Mortgagee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when First Party, its successors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness recited hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this mortgage, or by tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency. The court may also place the Mortgagee in possession. Mortgagee or the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

9. Mortgagee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence or condition of the premises, nor shall Mortgagee be obligated to record this mortgage or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Mortgagor, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

10. Mortgagee shall release and satisfy this mortgage and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this mortgage has been fully paid; and Mortgagee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Mortgagee the note representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Mortgagee may accept as true without inquiry. Where the release is requested of the Mortgagee and it has never executed a certificate on any instrument identifying same as the note described herein, it may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which may be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed on behalf of First Party. Mortgagee is hereby empowered to charge a reasonable sum for the preparation of such release.

11. Upon request of First Party, Mortgagee, at Mortgagee's option prior to release of this Mortgage, may make future advances to First Party. Such future advances, with interest thereon, shall be secured by this Mortgage when evidenced by promissory notes stating that said notes are secured hereby. At no time shall the principal amount of the indebtedness secured by this Mortgage, not including sums advanced in accordance herewith to protect the security of this Mortgage, exceed the original amount of the Note plus US $ -0-
