1. Mortgagors shall (1) promptly repair or cause to be repaired any damage to the premises which may become damaged or be destroyed; (2) keep the premises in good repair and repair, without waste, all leaks, drains, gutters, or other leaks or drains for which they are responsible; (3) pay promptly and in full all taxes, assessments, and charges which may be levied or assessed against the premises or the premises hereon; (4) complete within a reasonable time any building or buildings now or at any time in process of erection upon said premises; (5) comply with all requirements of law or municipal ordinances with respect to the premises and the use thereof; (6) make no material alterations in said premises except as required by law or municipal ordinance.

2. Mortgagors shall be liable for the payment of all general real estate taxes and shall deposit or cause to be deposited with the Trustee named in this Trust Deed or with the legal holder of the note referred to herein on the first day of each and every month during the term of the note a sum equal to one twelfth of the estimated general real estate taxes now or hereafter levied against said premises computed on the amount of the last ascertainable real estate taxes. Mortgagors shall pay special taxes, special assessment water charges, sewer charges and other charges against the premises when due and shall upon written request furnish to Trustee or to holders of the note referred to herein duplicate receipts therefor.

3. Mortgagors shall cause all buildings and improvements now or hereafter situated on said premises to be insured against loss or damage by fire, lightning or windstorm under policies providing for payment by the insurance companies of moneys sufficient either to pay the cost of replacing or repairing the same or to pay in full the indebtedness secured hereby, all in companies satisfactory to the holders of the note, under insurance policies payable, in case of loss or damage, to Trustee for the benefit of the holders of the note, such rights to be evidenced by the standard mortgage clause to be attached to each policy, and shall deliver all policies, including additional and renewal policies, to holders of the note, and in case of insurance about to expire, shall deliver renewal policies not less than ten days prior to the respective dates of expiration. Mortgagors shall deposit with the Trustee an amount equivalent to one twelfth of the annual insurance premiums on the first day of each and every month during the term of said loan. The amounts deposited under the real estate tax reserve and insurance reserve referred to in paragraphs two and three hereof shall be held by the Trustee or the legal holder of the note as and for a Sinking Fund to be used by the Trustee or the legal holder of the note to pay the general real estate taxes first against said premises and insurance premiums as and when the same become due and payable.

4. In case of default herein, Trustee or the holders of the note may, but need not, make any payment or perform any act hereunder required of Mortgagors in any form and manner deemed expedient, and may, but need not, make full or partial payments of principal or interest or prior encumbrances, if any, and purchase, discharge, compromise or settle any tax lien or other lien or claim thereof, or redeem from any tax sale or forfeiture affecting said premises or contest any tax or assessment. All moneys paid for any of the purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees, and any other moneys advanced by Trustee or the holders of the note to protect the mortgaged premises and the lien hereof, plus reasonable compensation to Trustee for each matter concerning which action herein authorized may be taken, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum. Inaction of Trustee or holders of the note shall never be considered as a waiver of any right accruing to them on account of any default hereunder on the part of Mortgagors.

5. The Trustee or the holders of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

6. Mortgagors, by each item of indebtedness herein mentioned, both principal and interest, when due according to the terms hereof. At the option of the holders of the note, and without notice to Mortgagors, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed shall, notwithstanding anything in the note or in this Trust Deed to the contrary, become due and payable (a) immediately in the case of default in making payment of any installment principal or interest on the note, or (b) when default shall occur and continue for three days in the performance of any other agreement of the Mortgagors herein contained. Any deficiency in the amount of any monthly payment shall constitute an event of default and the Trustee or the holders of the note secured hereby may collect a "late charge" on each payment more than fifteen days in arrears to cover the extra expense involved in handling delinquent payments.

7. When the indebtedness secured hereby shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, holders of the note or Trustee shall have the right to foreclose the lien hereof, or any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and disbursements which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Trustee or holders of the note for attorney's fees, Trustee's fees, appraiser's fees, costs of documentary and expert evidence, stenographers' charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended by or on behalf of the decedent of procuring all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, guarantee policies, Torrens certificates, and similar data and assurance with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to enforce to holders at any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of the title to or to the value of the premises. All expenses and disbursements of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately payable, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum, when paid or incurred by Trustee or holders of the note in connection with any proceeding, including probate and bankruptcy proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this trust deed or any indebtedness hereby secured; or (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

8. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute or are indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the note; fourth, any surplus to Mortgagors, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns, as their rights may appear.

9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose the Trust Deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, and without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further period when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become prior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the note hereby secured.

11. Trustee or the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of its agents or employees of Trustee, a suit may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

13. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the note representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as the makers thereof; and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never executed a certificate or any instrument identifying same as the note described herein, it may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which purports to be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.

14. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of titles in which this matter shall have been recorded or filed. In case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act of Trustee, the then Recorder of Deeds of the county in which the premises are situated shall be Successor in Trust. Any Successor in Trust hereunder shall have the identical title, powers and authority as herein given Trustee, and any Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.

15. This Trust Deed and all provisions hereof, shall extend to and be binding upon Mortgagors and all persons claiming under through Mortgagors, and the word "Mortgagors" when used herein shall include all such persons and all persons liable for the payment of the indebtedness or any part thereof, whether or not such persons shall have executed the note or this Trust Deed.

16. In the event of the sale or transfer of the title to the premises described herein, the holder of the note secured hereby may at its option declare the entire amount of the indebtedness to be immediately due and payable.
