Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person liable for any tax by the laws of the United States, or by the same after demand, the amount of such tax, plus interest additional, and any other tax or charge, and penalty together with any costs and may, or cause an addition thereto, shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon the property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specified by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall be valid for the amount paid and shall continue in the validity for the amount so disbursed or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability, notwithstanding its unenforceability by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment creditor under which there is a deficiency, if the requirements of subsection (b) has been filed by the Secretary.

(b) Place For Filing Notice; Form.—

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed:

(A) Under State Laws:

(i) Real Property.—In the case of real property in one office within the State or territory or other governmental subdivision, as designated by the laws of such State or territory, subject to the law as follows:

(ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State or the county, or other governmental subdivision, as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the law is situated, except that State law merely conforming to requiring the law of a neighboring national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State;

(B) With Clerk Of District Court.—In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to the lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated the office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or

(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia.—In the office of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(c) Site Of Property Subject To Lien.—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4) property shall be deemed to be situated:

(A) Real Property.—In the case of real property, at its physical location;

(B) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of lien is filed;

For purposes of paragraph (2), (B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(d) Form.—The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

Note: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

1. Securities;
2. Motor vehicles;
3. Personal property purchased at retail;
4. Personal property purchased in consignment;
5. Personal property subjected to possessory, lien;
6. Real property tax and special assessment liens;
7. Residential property subject to a mechanic's lien for certain repairs and improvements;
8. Attorney's liens;
9. Certain insurance contracts;
10. Passbook loans.

Refiling Of Notice.—For purposes of this section:

(1) General Rule.—Unless notice of lien is refiled in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed in accordance with subsection (b) after the expiration of such refiling period.

(2) Place For Filing.—A notice of lien filed during the required refiling period shall be effective only:

(A) if:

(i) such notice of lien is refiled in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed; and

(ii) in the case of real property, and the fact of refiling is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (b) (4); and

(B) in any case in which, 90 days or more prior to the date of a refiling of notice of lien under subparagraph (A), the Secretary issues a written opinion on the matter presented in regulations issued by the Secretary concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence if a notice of such change is filed in accordance with subsection (b) in the State in which such residence is located.

Required Refiling Period.—In the case of any notice of lien, the term required refiling period means:

(A) the one year period ending six days after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of the tax; and

(B) the one year period ending with the expiration of 10 years after the close of the preceding required refiling period for giving notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.

Release Of Lien.—Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the day on which:

(1) Bond Accepted Or Unconditional.—The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed together with all interest accrued thereon has been fully satisfied or has been entirely abandoned; or

(2) Bond Accepted.—There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed together with all interest accrued thereon within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time) and that is in accordance with such requirements relating to terms, conditions and form of the bond and securities thereon as may be specified by such regulations.

Sec. 6103. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.

a. Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(1) Disclosure of amount of outstanding tax, if a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6321; the amount of the outstanding obligation accrued by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.
