statutory period during which it may be issued. Mortgagor shall have all the conventional powers of any type of power to take or to abandon possession of and premises without affecting the tenancy of the Mortgagor or the then value of said premises, or whether the same shall then be occupied by the owner of the equity of redemption as a homestead, appoint a receiver with power to manage and rent and to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and the statutory period of redemption, and such rents, issues and profits, when collected, may be applied before as well as after the sale, towards the payment of the indebtedness, costs, taxes, insurance or other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the property, including the expenses of such receivership, or on any deficiency decree whether there be a decree therefor in personam or not, and if a receiver shall be appointed he shall remain in possession until the expiration of the full period allowed by statute for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, and until the issuance of deed in case of sale, but if no deed be issued, until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued and no lease of said premises shall be nullified by the appointment or entry in possession of a receiver but he may elect to terminate any lease junior to the tenancy of the Mortgagor.

K. That upon the commencement of any foreclosure proceeding hereunder, the court in which such bill is filed may at any time, either before or after sale, and without notice to the Mortgagor, or any party claiming under him, and without regard to the solvency of the Mortgagor or the then value of said premises, or whether the same shall then be occupied by the owner of the equity of redemption as a homestead, appoint a receiver with power to manage and rent and to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and the statutory period of redemption, and such rents, issues and profits, when collected, may be applied before as well as after the sale, towards the payment of the indebtedness, costs, taxes, insurance or other items necessary for the protection and preservation of the property, including the expenses of such receivership, or on any deficiency decree whether there be a decree therefor in personam or not, and if a receiver shall be appointed he shall remain in possession until the expiration of the full period allowed by statute for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, and until the issuance of deed in case of sale, but if no deed be issued, until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued and no lease of said premises shall be nullified by the appointment or entry in possession of a receiver but he may elect to terminate any lease junior to the tenancy of the Mortgagor.

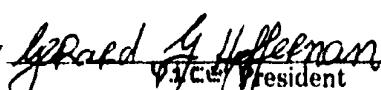

L. That each right, power and remedy herein conferred upon the Mortgagee is cumulative of every other right or remedy of the Mortgagee, whether herein or by law conferred, and may be enforced concurrently therewith, that no waiver by the Mortgagee of performance of any covenant herein or in said obligation contained shall thereafter in any manner affect the right of Mortgagee to require or enforce performance of the same or any other of said covenants, that wherever the context hereof requires the masculine gender, as used herein, shall include the feminine and the neuter and the singular number, as used herein, shall include the plural, that all rights and obligations under this mortgage shall extend to and be binding upon the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the Mortgagor, and the successors and assigns of the Mortgagee, and that the powers herein mentioned may be exercised as often as occasion therefor arises.

The Mortgagor hereby waives any and all rights of redemption from sale under any order or decree of foreclosure or this mortgage.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Mortgagor has caused these presents to be signed by its Vice, President, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and attested by its Assistant Secretary, this 8TH day of AUGUST A.D., 19 91, pursuant to authority given by resolution duly passed by the Board of Directors of said Corporation

Comments
The proposed rule is intended to provide clarity and consistency in the application of the requirements of the statute and regulations under the terms of this moratorium.

Moreover, as the market price of oil rises, so does the cost of production for oil companies, which in turn increases the cost of oil products. This, in turn, leads to higher prices for consumers, which can have a negative impact on the economy. In addition, oil companies often have significant political influence, which can lead to policies that favor them at the expense of other sectors.
