Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code.

Sac. 6321. Lien For Taxes.

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty) together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto, shall be a tax, under the United States, upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person. Internal Revenue Code, section 6321.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not prevail as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (1) has been filed by the Secretary.

(i) Place For Filing; Notice; Form.—

- (1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed:
- (A) Under State Laws.
- (i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in one office, within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and,
- (ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office, within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; except that State law merely conforming to requiring Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing, as designated by the laws of such State; or,
- (B) With Clerk Of District Court.—In the office of the Clerk of the United States District Court for the judicial district in which the property subject to lien is situated; whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or,
- (C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia.—In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Sluts Of Property Subject To Lien.—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4), property shall be deemed to be situated:

(A) Real Property.—In the case of real property, at its physical location;

(B) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of lien is filed.

For purposes of paragraph (2)(B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form.—The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

Note: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

1. Securities
2. Minor vehicles
3. Personal property purchased in casual sale
4. Personal property subject to a statutory lien
5. Real property tax and special assessment liens
6. Residential property subject to a mechanic's lien for certain repairs and improvements
7. Attorney's liens
8. Certain insurance contracts
9. Passbook loans

(g) Refiling Of Notice.—For purposes of this section:

(1) General Rule.—Unless notice of lien is refiled in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed in accordance with subsection (1) after the expiration of such refiling period.

(2) Place For Filing.—A notice of lien refiled during the required refiling period shall be effective only:

- (A) If:
- (i) such notice of lien is filed in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed, and,
- (ii) in the case of real property, and the fact of refiling is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (1)(4), and,
- (iii) in any case in which, 90 days or more prior to the date of a refiling of notice of lien under subparagraph (A), the Secretary received written information concerning the location of such lien or also the submission of the same to the State in which it is located.

(3) Required Refiling.

case of any notice of lien, the following means:

(A) the one-year period ending on the expiration of 10 years after the date of filing of tax, and;

(B) the one-year period ending 10 years after the close of the grace period for such notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release; Discharge.

(a) Release Of Lien.

Notice of lien may be released by the Secretary, or by any other officer or employee of the Secretary, to any Internal Revenue tax not liable on which:

(1) Liability. Relieved of liability if the Secretary finds that the liability for the tax, or with an interest in respect thereof, has become legally unenforceable.

(2) Bond Accepted.—Relieved of liability and accepted by the Secretary a bond for the payment of the amount assessed, in respect thereof, within the time specified by any extension of such period, and such requirements relating to surety as the bond and sureties furnish as regulations.

Sec. 6103. Confidential Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.

(a) Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.

(1) Disclosure of Returns.—If notice of lien has been filed before the amount of the outstanding欠款, and the Secretary has written evidence that he has a right in such lien or intends to assert a right in
