Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes.

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty, together with all costs that may accrue in collection thereof) shall be a tax in favor of the United States upon any property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for that amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(c) Purchasers, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (f) has been filed by the Secretary.

In Place For Filing Notice; Form.

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed:

(A) Under State Laws:

(i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and

(ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated, except that State law merely conforming to re-enacting Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State; or

(B) With Clerk Of District Court.—In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A)(i);

(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia.—In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Situs Of Property Subject To Lien.—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4), property shall be deemed to be situated:

(A) Real Property.—In the case of real property, at its physical location; or

(B) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of lien is filed.

For purposes of paragraph (2)(B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form.—The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (A) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such form shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

Note. See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

1. Securities
2. Motor vehicles
3. Personal property purchased in casual sale
4. Personal property subject to necessary lien
5. Real property tax and special assessments
6. Residential property subject to a mechanic's lien for certain repairs and improvements
7. Attorney's liens
8. Certain insurance contracts
9. Passbook loans

(c) Refiling Of Notice.—For purposes of this section—

(1) General Rule.—Unless notice of lien is filed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subsection (f)), after the expiration of such refiling period.

(2) Place For Filing.—A notice of lien filed during the required refiling period shall be effective only:

(A) If:

(i) such notice of lien is filed in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed; and

(ii) in the case of real property, and the fact of refiling is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (f)(4); and

(B) in any case in which, 30 days or more prior to the date of a refiling of notice of lien, under subparagraph (A), the

Secretary received written presentation or request concerning a change in the notice of such lien, or in the submission (f) in the case of such lien.

(3) Required Refiling.—In the case of any notice of lien, the required refiling period is:

(A) the one-year period of limitation for the payment of such tax; and

(B) the one-year period of limitation for the payment of such tax, plus three years after the close of the taxable year in which such tax was paid.

Sec. 6325. Release Discharge.

(a) Release Of Lien.—Unless the Secretary may otherwise direct, the Secretary may release or discharge any internal revenue tax not levied on which:

(1) Liability Satisfaction.—If the Secretary finds that the liability for tax, plus all interest in respect thereof, has become legally unenforceable.

(2) Bond Accepted.—If the Secretary finds that the bond accepted by him or his predecessor in office in respect thereof, within the time limit specified in subsection (f), or any extension of such time, satisfies all such requirements referred to in the bond and satisfies the bond regulations.

Sec. 6103. Comprehensive Disclosure of Returns and Returns Information; Administration Purposes.

(1) Disclosure of Returns.—A notice of lien filed prior to the date on which the amount of the outstanding debt may be collected by any means, or any written evidence that he has or intends to obtain, a notice of lien or intends to obtain a notice of lien.

(2) Disclosure of Returns and Returns Information.—A notice of lien filed prior to the date on which the amount of the outstanding debt may be collected by any means, or any written evidence that he has or intends to obtain, a notice of lien or intends to obtain a notice of lien.
