Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person fails to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, including any interest, additional amount, penalty, or tax, or assessable penalty, together with all costs that may accrue, in addition thereto, or in the exercise of any right, arising under this title, all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person. (T.D. 64-444, 1/10/64.)

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien

Unless a later date is specified by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer) is satisfied, but if such liability is satisfied or becomes unenforceable, or is beyond the time,

Sec. 6323. Validity And Priority Against Certain Persons

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (1) has been filed by the Secretary.

Place For Filing Notice; Form.—

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (1) shall be filed:

(A) Under State Laws.

(i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated.

(ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (same county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated except that State law merely conforming to existing Federal law establishing a central filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State;

(B) With Clerk Of Court. In the office of the Clerk of the United States Circuit Court for the judicial district in which the property subject to the lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or

(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Or The Register Of Cadastral Surveyor. In the office of the Recorder of Deeds or the Register of Cadastral Surveyor of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(b) State Of Property Subject To Lien.—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), a liability shall be deemed to be satisfied:

(A) Real Property.—In the case of real property, at its original location, or

(B) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residency of the taxpayer at the time the notice of lien is filed.

(c) Liquidation Of Property.—(1) The evidence of a corporation or partnership which is claimed to be the place at which the principal part of such organization or business is located, and the residence of the president if the organization is without the District of Columbia;

(2) Form.—The form and manner of the notice referred to in subsection (1) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

Note: See section 6323(d) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

1. Securities
2. Motor vehicles
3. Personal property purchased in trade
4. Personal property purchased in casual sale
5. Personal property subjected to compensatory lien
6. Real property tax and special assessments
7. Residential property subject to a mechanic's lien for certain repair and improvements
8. Attorney's fees
9. Certain insurance contracts
10. Paybook loans

Refiling Of Notice.—For purposes of this section:

(1) General Rule.—Unless notice of lien is refiled in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed in accordance with subsection (1) after the expiration of such refiling period.

(2) Place For Filing.—A notice of lien refiled during the required refiling period shall be effective only:

(A) If:

(i) such notice of lien is filed in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed, and

(ii) in the case of real property, and the fact of refiling is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (1)(4); and

(B) in any case in which, 30 days or more prior to the date of a refiling of notice of lien under subparagraph (A), the

Secretary received written information in the manner required by regulation issued by the Secretary concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence, the notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (1) in the District in which such residence is located.

Required Refiling Period.—In the case of any notice of lien, the term required refiling period means:

(1) the one-year period ending 30 days after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of the tax; and

(2) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 10 years after the date of the preceding required refiling period for such notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property.

Release Of Lien.—Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the day on which:

(1) Liability Satisfied or Unenforceable.—The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, has been fully satisfied or has become legally unenforceable; or

(2) Bond Accepted.—There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond to conditioned upon payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time), and that is in accordance with such regulations relating to terms, conditions, and form of the bond and sureties thereon, as may be specified by such regulations.

Sec. 6103. Confidentiality And Disclosure Of Returns And Return Information.

(a) Disclosure Of Certain Returns And Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(2) Disclosure of amount of outstanding lien, if a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6321(b), the amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or interests to obtain a right in such property.
