education, support, and maintenance during their lifetime. The discretion of trustee shall be exercised liberally in favor of Clifford Wener and Bonnie Wener, or their survivor, it being their intention that they shall have, in addition to the necessities, a reasonable number of the luxuries of life.

c. On the death of the survivor of Clifford Wener and Bonnie Wener:

1. If either Matthew Korbakes of 209 Westmoreland Drive, City of Wilmette, State of Illinois, or Tamra Wener of 214 Alpine, City of Vernon Hills, State of Illinois, or Maureen Wener of 214 Alpine, City of Vernon Hills, State of Illinois, is then under twenty-one (21) years of age, the trust shall continue, on the following terms:

a. Trustee shall pay to Matthew Korbakes and Tamra Wener and Maureen Wener as much of the trust income and principal as trustee, in trustee's absolute discretion, determines necessary for their support, maintenance, education (including college and professional education), and health care. Such payments may be made in unequal amounts. Payments made pursuant to this provision shall not be charged against the distributive share of any person on termination of this trust. Any income not expended as provided herein shall be accumulated and added to trust principal.

b. This trust shall terminate on the date when neither Mathew Korbakes nor Tamra Wener nor Maureen Wener are under twenty-one (21) years of age. On such termination, the trust property, including accumulated and undistributed income, shall vest in and be distributed in the following manner: one-half interest to Mathew Korbakes and one-quarter interest to each Tamra Wener and Maureen Wener.

2. If neither Mathew Korbakes nor Tamra Wener nor Maureen Wener is then under twenty-one (21) years of age, the trust property, including undistributed income, shall vest in and be distributed in the following manner: one-half interest to Mathew Korbakes and one-quarter interest to each Tamra Wener and Maureen Wener.
D. On the termination of the trust herein, if neither Mathew Korbakes nor Tamra Wener nor Maureen Wener are living, the trust property and undistributed accumulated income shall vest in and be distributed one-half to each of Clifford Wener's and Bonnie Wener's heirs at law as if he or she had survived the termination of such trust, and then died, determined as of the date of such termination and according to the laws of the State of Illinois then in force received by trustee or subsequently added to the estate, or acquired by the trust estate pursuant to proper authority, including trustee's stock, so long as trustee exercises the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which persons of ordinary prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as the probable safety of their capital.

d. To allocate receipts and disbursements to principal or income as trustee deems appropriate. In determining allocations between principal and income, all such allocations made by the trustee in good faith shall be conclusive. e. As to property held at any time or from time to time as an asset of any trust hereunder, trustee shall not charge any depreciation to income. The cost of improvements shall not be amortized and no part of such improvements shall be charged to income. The cost of ordinary repairs shall be charged to income and the cost of extraordinary repairs shall be charged to principal.

F. Unless sooner terminated as otherwise provided in this instrument, the trust created hereby shall fully cease and terminate 21 years after the death of the last survivor of Clifford Wener, Bonnie Wener, Matthew Korbakes, Tamra Wener, and Maureen Wener living on the date this trust instrument becomes effective. On such termination, the entire principal of the trust estate, together with any undistributed income therefrom, shall vest in and be distributed to the persons entitled to take under the provisions of the trust.

G. I appoint Mark Wener and Alan Fine cotrustees of the trust herein created to serve without bond. On the resignation, removal, incompetency, or death of both original cotrustees, Harris Trust and Savings shall become the successor trustee on its written acceptance of the duties of trustee hereunder. On the resignation of the corporate trustee, those to whom notice of resignation is to be given shall designate a successor trustee by written notice to the resigning trustee within 30 days after receipt of the notice of resignation. In the event a successor trustee shall not be so designated, the resigning trustee shall have the right to appoint a successor trustee.

trustee, or the resigning trustee or any beneficiary of this trust may secure the appointment of a successor trustee by a court of competent jurisdiction, at the expense of the trust estate. The resigning trustee shall transfer and deliver to the successor trustee the then entire trust estate and shall thereupon be discharged as trustee of this trust. The resigning trustee shall thereupon have no further powers, discretions, rights, obligations, or duties with respect to the trust estate. All such powers, discretions, rights, obligations, and duties of the resigning trustee shall inure to and be binding upon such successor trustee.

H. Trustee, or any successor, may resign at any time on giving written notice 30 days before such resignation shall take effect to trustee or trustees or, after the death of the last trustee, to all adult beneficiaries and to the guardians, conservators, or other fiduciaries of the estates of any minor or incompetent beneficiaries who may then be receiving or who are entitled to receive income hereunder. 1. This trust shall be irrevocable and shall not be revoked or terminated by trustee or any other person. Nor shall this trust be amended or altered by trustee or any other person.
