THE GRANTOR, covenants and agrees as follows: 1) To pay said indebtedness, and the interest thereon, as herein and in said notes provided, or according to any agreement extending time of payment, 2) to pay prior to the first day of June in each year, all taxes and assessments against said premises, and on demand to exhibit receipts therefor, 3) within sixty days after destruction or damage to rebuild or restore all buildings or improvements on said premises that may have been destroyed or damaged, 4) that waste to said premises shall not be committed or suffered, 5) to keep all buildings now or at any time on said premises insured in companies to be selected by the grantee herein, who is hereby authorized to place such insurance in companies acceptable to the holder of the first mortgage indebtedness, with loss clause attached, payable first, to the first Trustee or Mortgagee, and second, to the Trustee herein as their interests may appear, which policies shall be left and remain with the said Mortgagor or Trustees until the indebtedness is fully paid, 6) to pay all prior incumbrances, and the interest thereon, at the time of times when the same shall become due and payable.

In case of failure to insure, or pay taxes or assessments, or the prior incumbrances or the interest thereon when due, the grantee or the holder of said indebtedness, may procure such insurance, or pay such taxes or assessments, or discharge or purchase any lien or title affecting said premises or pay all prior incumbrances and the interest thereon from time to time, and all money so paid shall be a charge against the above-referred indebtedness, and shall be repaid immediately without demand, and the same will interest thereon from the date of payment at seven per cent per annum.

In case of a breach of any of the aforesaid covenants or agreements the whole of said indebtedness, including principal and accrued interest shall, at the option of the legal holder thereof, without notice, become immediately due and payable, and with interest thereon from time of such breach, at seven per cent per annum, shall be recoverable by foreclosure thereof, or by suit at law, or both, the same as if all of said indebtedness had then matured by express terms.

If it is agreed by the grantor, that all expenses and disbursements paid or incurred in behalf of complaint in connection with the foreclosed interest, including reasonable attorney fees, outlays for documentary evidence, stenographer's charges, cost of procuring or completing abstract showing the whole title of said premises, embracing foreclosure decree, shall be paid by the grantor, and the like expenses and disbursements occasioned by any suit or proceeding whether the grantee or any holder, any part of said indebtedness, as such, may be a party, shall also be paid by the grantor. All such expenses and disbursements shall be an additional lien upon said premises, shall be taxed as costs and included in any decree that may be rendered in such foreclosure proceedings, which proceeding, whether decree of sale shall have been entered or not, shall not be dismissed, nor a release thereof given, until all such expenses and disbursements, and the costs of suit, including solicitor's fees have been paid. The grantor, for said grantor, and for the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said grantor, waive all right to the possession of, and income from, said premises pending such foreclosure proceeding, and agree that upon the filing of any bill to foreclose this Trust Deed, the court in which such bill is filed, may at once and without notice to the said grantor, or to any party claiming under said grantor, appoint a receiver to take possession or charge of said premises with power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the said premises.

In case of the death, removal or absence from said
