ALBANY

WHEATON BOOK CONCERN

THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE LAND OFFICE have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your report of the progress of the work of the office during the year 1910. The report is a valuable contribution to the knowledge of the public and the Legislature concerning the operations of the office and the condition of the public lands. It is particularly gratifying to find that the office has been able to accomplish so much during the year, notwithstanding the many difficulties which have been encountered. The report is well prepared and contains a great deal of interesting and useful information. It is a pleasure to find that the office has been able to keep the public lands in such good order and to have so much to show for the year. The report is a credit to the office and to the Commissioner in charge. It is a valuable record of the work of the office and a useful guide for the future.
