appear in the name of Sara Wilson only.

8. That thereafter due to a fire loss of said building and the insurance policy covered only the Aguilera's, Mrs. Wilson transferred the title back to the Aguileras, on or about July 1, 1987.
9. There now remains an unrecorded Deed running from Joseph R. Aguilera and Vicenta Aguilera to Sara Aguilera Wilson.
10. That after the death of Mary C. Cerda an estate was opened in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois in Cause Number 86 P 10557, Docket 931, Page 310.
11. That your Affiant was the Administrator, and he did not list the property in question because of the fact his parents had no interest in said property.
12. That the only heirs of Mary C. Cerda are the Affiant and his brother, Ruben Cerda.
13. That the present whereabouts of Ruben Cerda ^{is} ~~is~~ unknown to him. A.C.
14. That the Affiant is willing to execute a Deed in favor of the respective purchaser.

This Affidavit is given for the express purpose of aiding the Chicago Title and Trust Company in determining that the Cerda's had no actual interest in the aforementioned real estate.
