Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person fails to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessment imposed), together with any costs that may accrue in connection therewith, shall be a debt in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another case is specifically fixed by law, the tax imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such assessment) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority
Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The law imposed by section 6321 shall not be liable as against the purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (f) has been filed by the Secretary.

Place For Filing Notice: Form.

(1) Place For Filing - The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed-

(3) Under Section 13(2)

(1) Real Property - In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the tax is situated; and

(3) Personal Property-In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the fee is situated; except that State law merely conforming to reenacting Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State; or

(5) With Clerk Of District Court In The Office Of The Clerk Of The United States District Court For The Judicial District In Which The Property Subject To Sale Is Situated, Whenever The State Has Not By Law Designated One Office Which Meets The Requirements Of Paragraph (A), Or

(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia - In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) State Of Property Subject To Lien - For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4), property shall be deemed to be situated in the State of California.

(A) Real Property - In the case of real property, at its physical location; or

(B) Personal Property-In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of tax is filed.

For purposes of paragraph (2) (B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form - The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a), shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law concerning the form or content of a notice of fee.

Note: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

1. Securities
 2. Motor vehicles
 3. Personal property purchased at retail
 4. Personal property purchased in casual sale
 5. Personal property subjected to possessory lien
 6. Real property tax and special assessment liens
