Notice of Tax Lien

Clerk (or Registrar).

Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person fails to pay any tax, neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty, together with any costs that may accrue in action thereon, shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights so property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person. Interest and penalties.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the tax imposed by section 6201 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable for reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

as Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The term "secured by section 5201" shall not be construed to apply to purchaser, holder of a security interest, judgment creditor, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection 12 has been filed by the Secretary.

Place For Filing Notice: Form:

(1) Place For Filing - The notice referred to in each section of this Act shall be filed:

(All Major Series 2 now)

(4) Under State Law - In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision, as designated by the laws of such State), in which the property subject to the tax is abstracted; and

(B) Personal Property-In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; except that State law merely conforming to re-enacting Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing such documents in connection with claims.
