MARITAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this 18th day of APRIL, 1991, in Winnetka, Illinois, by and between MARY JANE KELLER, hereinafter referred to as "Wife", and FRED C. KELLER, hereinafter referred to as "Husband".

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto were lawfully married on August 8, 1964, in Buffalo, Erie County, New York, and

WHEREAS, four (4) children were born of the marriage, namely: EILEEN, age 23, ELIZABETH, age 22, RICHARD, age 22, and MICHAEL, age 15, and only MICHAEL KELLER is presently a minor. The Wife agrees that the Husband is a fit and proper person to have the residential custody of MICHAEL KELLER, and

WHEREAS, unfortunate and irreconcilable difficulties and differences have arisen between the parties, as a result of which they have ceased to live together as man and wife.

WHEREAS, the Husband has filed a Counter-Petition for Dissolution of Marriage in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, County Department, Domestic Relations Division, in a cause entitled "IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF MARY JANE KELLER, Counter-Respondent, and FRED C. KELLER, Counter-Petitioner, as Case No. 90 D 16797, and

WHEREAS, said action remains pending and undetermined, and

WHEREAS, without any collusion as to the said pending action or any other proceeding which the parties may bring, the parties consider it to their best interest to settle amicably all disputes between them attendant upon the dissolution of their marriage including, without limitation, the matter of custody, support, maintenance of either of them and the disposition of all property of the parties and other rights growing out of the marital or any other relationship now or previously existing between them and to settle any rights which either of them now has or may hereafter have against the other, and all rights of every kind, nature and description which either of them now has or may hereafter claim to have against the other or in or to any property of the other, whether real or personal, now owned or which may hereafter be acquired by either of them, or any rights or claims in and to the estate of the other, and

WHEREAS, Wife has elected not to have the benefit of counsel and Husband has employed and had the benefit of counsel of PAUL R. JENEN as his attorney, and

WHEREAS, each party has had the benefit of the advice, investigation and recommendations with reference to the subject matter of this Agreement and the parties acknowledge that each is fully informed of the wealth, property, income and estate of the other, and each has been fully informed of his and her respective legal rights in the premises, and

WHEREAS, neither party has any assets not described or alluded to in this instant Agreement,

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the sum of TEN and NO/100 ($10.00) DOLLARS, in hand paid by each party herein to the other, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and in full consideration of the mutual covenants herein, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties do hereby freely and voluntarily agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

1.01 This Agreement is not one to obtain or stipulate a Judgment of Dissolution Of Marriage.

1.02 Each party reserves the right to prosecute or defend any action now pending or which may hereafter be brought for relief under the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act.

ARTICLE II

2.01 The parties intend and acknowledge this Article to be and to constitute a Joint Parenting Agreement in accordance with the provisions of §602.1 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act.

2.02 Joint Custody. The parties acknowledge it is their mutual desire that the child understand, know, have and benefit from having two loving parents, both of whom shall continue to participate in the raising and guidance of the child in order to minimize, to the extent possible, the effects upon the child from the termination of their marriage. Both parents recognize their continuing relationship as parents despite the termination of the marriage. The parties agree that the custody of MICHAEL KELLER should be awarded to both of them, jointly with the child to reside physically with the Husband, and to reside with the Wife in keeping with the provisions of the residential parenting schedule as set forth in paragraph 2.04 below.

2.03 Decision Making. Both parents agree they will do everything within their power to foster the love, affection, and respect of the child for both parents and to make every possible effort to agree on all questions involving the welfare and future of the child so that he may have proper physical and emotional growth and retain respect and affection for both parties. The parties acknowledge and agree that the maximum involvement and cooperation of both parents is in the child's best interest and is required. The parties shall confer with each other about and jointly decide all important matters pertaining to the child, including but not by way of limitation, education, school and extracurricular activities, and religious training. Routine daily decisions affecting the child shall be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at that time.

2.04 Residential Parenting Schedule. The Wife shall have reasonable rights to visitation with the minor child, which shall include but not be limited to visitation each Sunday of each week from 5:00 p.m. overnight through the following Monday morning, at which time she shall return the minor to his school or home. The Wife shall additionally be entitled to visitation with the minor child on alternate holidays. For the purposes of this Agreement, the Wife shall be entitled to visitation with her son Christmas Eve of each year and the Husband shall be entitled to visitation with the minor son on Christmas Day of each year. Additionally, the Wife shall be entitled to two weeks summer vacation with the minor son. The Wife shall provide the Husband with notice of her intent to exercise this two week summer visitation period 30 days in advance by written notice.

2.05 Trips Outside the State of Illinois. Either of the parties may remove the child from the State of Illinois and the United States of America for trips or vacation purposes for a reasonable number of trips and for reasonable durations without further leave of Court or consent of the other party, provided, the party intending to remove the child shall give the other party reasonable notice of his or her intention to do so; and shall supply the other with information regarding the contemplated period of time outside of the State, the address and telephone number where said child will be during the period of time outside the State, and shall permit reasonable telephonic communication between the child and the parent who is not with the child.

2.06 Notification of Illness or Accident. Each party shall inform the other of any serious illness or injury suffered by the child when the child is residing with him or her as soon as possible after learning thereof. Each party shall direct all doctors involved in the care and treatment of the child to give the other parent all information regarding any illness or injury, if it is requested, and shall provide the other party with the name, address and telephone number of the attending physician, if any.

2.07 Child's Records and School activities. Each party shall (a) cooperate in facilitating the other party's obtaining of the child's grades and progress at school, and medical, dental and other health related records; (b) supply the other, if requested, with copies of grade reports, evaluations and report cards; (c) authorize the other to inspect the child's school and medical, dental and health related records and to communicate with teachers, school personnel, counselors and physicians and other health professionals to discuss the child's standing and progress;

(d) cooperate in advising the school to notify the other parent of programs and activities which parents are invited to attend; and (e) execute all appropriate authorizations, releases, or other documents necessary to effectuate the progress of this Joint Parenting Agreement.

2.08 Periodic Review. Both parents acknowledge they are attempting to resolve their differences through the use of this Joint Parenting Agreement. Each understands that the Residential Parenting Schedule as provided herein, as well as all other provisions may require future adjustments and changes to provide for the child's best interests. Both parties also recognize that this Joint Parenting Agreement is a dynamic concept subject to re-evaluation and change, and they agree to review from time to time its provisions concerning its adequacy, feasibility, and appropriateness in view of the age, welfare and developmental progress of the child, their ability to cooperate effectively and consistently with one another, and all other appropriate factors concerning the child's best interests.

2.09 Dispute Resolution. If the parties cannot agree as to any major decision affecting the welfare of the child, or if either party wishes to change the terms of this Joint Parenting Agreement in a manner to which the other does not agree, or if any other dispute arises concerning the meaning of this Joint Parenting Agreement or anything else concerning the child, the parties will attempt to avoid the expense and acrimony of formal court proceedings. Accordingly, any such dispute shall first be submitted to the process of mediation through the services of any mediator on whom both parties agree. If the parties are unable to agree, they shall ask the director of the family counseling services of the Circuit Court of the county where the child then reside to provide the names of three qualified mediators and select one of those three by lottery. Both parties will participate in the mediation process before seeking relief from a court. If the dispute is not resolved in the mediation process, either party shall have the right to submit the dispute to a court of competent jurisdiction upon proper notice and petition.

2.10 Miscellaneous.

A. Neither party shall at any time or for any reason, cause the child to be known or identified or designated by any name other than MICHAEL RELLER, nor shall either party permit interference from any future spouse or any other person with respect to major decisions affecting the health, education, religion and welfare of the child.

B. Each party shall communicate with the other directly and shall not use the child as message carrier to each other. Further, the child shall not be used for the delivery of any monies due from one to the other.

C. It is further agreed that by written agreement between both parents they shall have the right to alter, modify and otherwise arrange for specific residential periods, other than the general provisions provided above, upon such terms and conditions as are conducive to the best interests and welfare of the child.

ARTICLE III

CHILD SUPPORT

3.01 Based on the present circumstances of the parties, the Husband agrees that the issue of child support to be paid by the Wife to the Husband shall be reserved.

3.02 The Husband shall be entitled to the income tax exemptions for the minor child in 1991 and all subsequent years. The Wife shall sign those documents required by the Internal Revenue Service in order to permit the Husband to take the child as an exemption if necessary.

3.03 The parties agree to file a joint federal and state income tax return for the year 1990. The Husband shall be responsible to pay any additional taxes due by reason of the filing of these joint returns. The Husband's agreement to pay any additional taxes is premised upon the Wife's representations that she has no net earnings for the year 1990.

ARTICLE IV

POST-HIGH SCHOOL EXPENSES

4.01 The parties agree that the issue as to what contributions each shall make towards the college expenses of MICHAEL KELLER shall be reserved and determined in accordance with 513 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act as amended from time to time.

ARTICLE V

MEDICAL EXPENSES

5.01 The Husband shall pay any extra-ordinary and ordinary medical, dental and orthodontic care for the minor child of the parties.

5.02 In the event of any serious illness of the child or the need for hospital, surgical, optical, orthodontic or extra-ordinary medical or dental care while the child is in the physical custody of the Wife, the Wife shall consult with the Husband before incurring any such expenses. It is understood by both parties that the Wife's obligation to consult with the Husband shall not apply in cases of emergency, where the life or health of the child might be imperiled by delay.

ARTICLE VI

MAINTENANCE

6.01 The Husband agrees to a full, final, complete and irrevocable waiver of any right to maintenance from the Wife.

6.02 The Husband shall pay to the Wife as and for her allowance for her support and maintenance the sum of $625.00 per month, with the first monthly maintenance payment to commence on June 1, 1991 and to continue on the first day of each month thereafter until such time as the Husband has fulfilled his obligation to pay the total property settlement of $150,000.00 to the Wife as hereinafter provided.

6.03 Upon the payment of the Husband to the Wife of the maintenance as provided for in paragraph 6.02 above, the Wife shall waive any and all other entitlements to maintenance from the Husband.

6.04 Pursuant to Illinois Revised Statutes, Ch. 40, 5502(f), the provisions of this Article shall be deemed nonmodifiable.

ARTICLE VII

REAL ESTATE

7.01 The parties are presently the owners in joint tenancy of a certain residence commonly known as 513 Walnut Street, Winnetka, Illinois 60093, and legally described in Exhibit A attached hereto. The parties acknowledge that the marital residence has a present fair market value of approximately $600,000.00. Upon the entry of any Judgment For Dissolution Of Marriage, the Wife shall quit claim all her right, title and interest to the premises to the Husband. Thereafter, the Husband shall be obligated to pay the first mortgage against the home through Midwest Mortgage Services, having a principal balance of approximately $145,599.74, and shall hold the Wife harmless for the payment of said mortgage. The Husband shall also be responsible for the payment of the real estate taxes, homeowner's insurance, utilities and costs of maintaining the residence. The Husband shall be entitled to any real estate escrow reserve now on deposit with the parties' mortgage house. The Wife represents that she has not caused any other mortgages or liens to be placed against this residence.

7.02 In consideration of the Wife's waiver of any interest in the parties' investments and marital residence, the Husband agrees to pay the Wife the total sum of $150,000.00 as follows. The Wife acknowledges receipt of the sum of $25,000.00 on or about November, 1990, which was received as an advancement towards any property settlement agreement. The Wife further acknowledges that she received a check in the sum of $2,000.00 in open court on April 15, 1991 and will receive an additional check in the sum of ~~$2,000.00~~ ^{$3,000.00} upon the signing of this Marital Settlement Agreement by both parties. On the 31st day subsequent to the entry of any Judgment For Dissolution Of Marriage in these proceedings, the Husband will pay the Wife the additional sum of ~~$46,000.00~~ ^{$51,000.00}. The remaining balance of $75,000.00 shall be paid to the Wife at such time as the Husband shall have attained the age of 55 years. The Wife shall not be entitled to interest on this outstanding principal amount of $75,000.00. A lien shall be placed against the marital residence by the Husband in order to secure the payment of this $75,000.00 to the Wife.

GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.01 Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees to execute and acknowledge, upon the effective date of this agreement, good and sufficient instruments necessary or proper to vest the titles and estates in the respective parties hereto, as hereinabove provided, and thereafter, at any time from time to time, to execute and acknowledge any and all documents which may be necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this agreement and establish of record the sole and separate ownership of the several properties of said parties in the manner herein agreed and provided. If either party hereto for any reason shall fail or refuse to execute any such documents, then this agreement shall, and it is hereby expressly declared to, constitute a full and effective present transfer, assignment and conveyance of all rights hereinabove designated to be transferred, assigned and conveyed for a full, present and effective relinquishment and waiver of all rights hereinabove designated to be relinquished and waived.

11.02 Wife covenants and agrees that, except as is otherwise provided herein, she shall, and hereby does waive, remise and relinquish any and all claim of right, title or interest which she now has, or might hereafter assert, against Husband or his property, whether real, personal, or mixed, by reason of the marital relationship previously existing between them, or for any other reason. Wife's waiver shall include, but not necessarily be limited to a waiver of any and all rights to maintenance (formerly known as alimony), homestead, dower, inheritance and succession except as is otherwise provided herein.

11.03 Husband covenants and agrees that, except as is otherwise provided herein, he shall, and hereby does waive, remise, and relinquish any and all claim of right, title or interest which he now has, or might hereafter assert, against Wife or her property, whether real, personal, or mixed, by reason of the marital relationship previously existing between them, or for any other reason. Husband's waiver shall include, but not necessarily be limited to a waiver of any and all rights to maintenance (formerly known as alimony), homestead, dower, inheritance and succession.

11.04 Except as is otherwise provided herein, each of the parties shall, and does hereby, waive and relinquish all rights to act as administrator or administrator with the will annexed of the estate of the other party and to inherit by intestate succession any of the property of which the other party may die seized or possessed (should either of the parties die intestate). This agreement shall operate as a relinquishment of all right of the surviving party hereafter to apply for letters of administration in any form, and the estate of such deceased party, if he or she dies intestate, shall descend to the heirs at law of such deceased party, in the same manner as though the parties had never been married. Each of the parties, respectively, reserves the right to dispose, by testament or otherwise, of his or her property in any way that he or she may see fit, without any restriction or limitation, whatsoever, except that this provision shall not operate nor shall it be construed as a waiver or release by either party of the obligation of the other to fully comply with the terms of this agreement.

11.05 To the fullest extent permitted by law, except as otherwise provided herein, each of the parties shall and hereby does forever relinquish, release, waive, quitclaim and grant to the other (or his or her heirs, personal representatives, and assigns) all rights of inheritance, descent, distribution, community interest, and any and all other right, title, claim, interest and estate as husband or wife, widow or widower, or otherwise by reason of the marital relationship previously existing between them under any present or future law, or which he or she otherwise has or might have or be entitled to claim in, to, or against the property and assets of the other, real, personal, or mixed, or his or her estate, whether now owned or hereafter in any manner acquired by the other party, and whether in possession or in expectancy, and whether vested or contingent. Each party further covenants and agrees for himself or herself, his or her heirs, personal representatives, and assigns, that neither of them shall at any time in the future sue the other, or his or her heirs, personal representatives, grantees, devisees, or assigns, for the purpose of enforcing any or all of the rights specified in and relinquished under this paragraph. Each party further covenants and agrees that in the event any suit shall be commenced, this release, when pleaded, shall be and constitute a complete defense to any such claim or suit so instituted by either party. Each party further covenants and agrees to execute, acknowledge and to deliver, at the request of the other party, his or her heirs, personal representatives, grantees, devisees or assigns, any or all such deeds, releases, or other instruments and
