And the real estate not having been redeemed from the sale, and it appearing that the holder of the Certificate of Purchase of said real estate has complied with the laws of the State of Illinois necessary to entitle him to a deed of said real estate, as found and ordered by the Circuit Court of Cook County;

I, DAVID D. ORR, County Clerk of the County of Cook, Illinois, residing and having my postoffice address at 1344 W. Touhy Ave., Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, in consideration of the premises and by virtue of the Statutes of the State of Illinois, in such cases provided, grant and convey to A.M. Investments Co. residing and having his (her or their) residence and post office address at 17 W. Washington, Suite 617, Chicago, Illinois 60602 his (her or their) heirs and assigns FOREVER, the real estate hereinabove described.

The following provisions of the Revised Statutes of the State of Illinois, being Paragraph 752 of Chapter 120 is recited, pursuant to law:

"Unless the holder of the certificate for real estate purchased at any tax sale under this Act takes out the deed in the time provided by law, and files the same for record within one year from and after the time for redemption expires, the certificate or deed, and the sale on which it is based, shall, from and after the expiration of such one year, be absolutely null and void with no right to reimbursement. If the holder of such certificate is prevented from obtaining such deed by injunction or order of any court, or by the refusal or inability of any court to act upon the application for a tax deed, or by the refusal of the clerk to execute the same, the time he or she is so prevented shall be excluded from computation of such time."

Given under my hand and seal, this 4th day of August 1992.
