Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

Any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to do the same after demand, the amount including any interest and additional amount, section 6625 tax, or assessable penalty, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto, shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another date is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 begins at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed, or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability, is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

Purchaser's, Holders of Security Interests, Mechanic's Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (f) has been filed by the Secretary.

In Place For Filing Notice; Form.—

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (b) shall be filed:

(A) Under State Laws:

(i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in one office within the State for the county, or other governmental subdivision, as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated, and

(ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State, or county, or other governmental subdivision, as designated by the laws of such State in which the property subject to the lien is situated, except that State law merely conforming to existing Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as directed by the laws of such State, or

(B) With Clerk Of District Courts.—In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to the lien is situated, whether the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or

(C) With Recorder Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia.—In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

RECEIVED URGENT MAIL

Secretary received written information (in the manner prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence). Notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (f) in the State in which such residence is located.

Required Refiling Period.—In the case of any notice of lien, the term "required refiling period" means:

(A) the one-year period ending 30 days after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of the tax, and

(B) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 10 years after the date of the preceding required refiling period for filing notice of lien.

Sec. 6325. Release Of Lien Or Discharge Of Property

Release Of Lien.—Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the date on which:

(1) Liability Satisfied or Unenforceable.—The Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, has been fully satisfied or has become legally unenforceable, or

(2) Bond Accepted.—There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time), and that it is in accordance with such requirements relating to terms, conditions, and form as the bond and sureties thereon, as may be specified by such regulations.

Sec. 6103. Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information

Disclosure of Certain Returns and Return Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(2) Disclosure of amount of outstanding balance of notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6323(f). The amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such lien may be disclosed to any person who furnishes satisfactory written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.
