COOK COUNTY RECORDER

ORDER FOR ISSUANCE OF JUDICIAL DEED

On application of petitioner, City of Chicago, for the issuance of a judicial deed, and it appearing that all persons entitled thereto have received due notice of this application, the court finds:

1. The court has jurisdiction of the subject matter and over respondents in this cause of action.

2. On June 29, 1992 the court entered an order declaring abandoned the premises commonly known as 1833 South Lawndale Avenue and legally described in Exhibit A, attached, under the provisions of section 11-31-1 (d) of chapter 24 of the Illinois Revised Statutes.

3. The notices required by law to be given to owners and other persons having an interest of record in the property have been duly served.

4. The owners of the property have failed to appear in this action after proper notification of the petitioner's request for abandonment and after being sent a copy of the Order of Abandonment.

5. Other persons having an interest in the property have failed to appear and to request the court's permission to demolish the building at the premises or to restore the building to a safe condition within the time requirements prescribed by law.

6. Petitioner has complied with all provisions of law regarding the issuance of judicial deeds and specifically with section 11-31-1 (d) of the Cities and Villages Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. ch. 24, §11-31-1 (d)) and is entitled to a judicial deed conveying in fee simple the hereinbefore described real estate and every part thereof.

Wherefore, the court orders as follows:

A. The court is authorized to forthwith make, execute and deliver to the petitioner a judicial deed, free and clear of all liens, upon presentation of a properly completed judicial deed in the format attached to this order, of all of the real estate described in paragraph 2 of this order.

B. Upon production of said deed the present Recorder of Deeds/Registrar of Titles of Cook County or her successor in office shall be and is authorized and directed to accept the deed for recording.

C. Upon production of said deed, the present Cook County Assessor, Cook County Treasurer and ex-officio Cook County Collector, and Cook County Clerk, or their successors in office, shall be and are authorized and directed to void and extinguish the tax liens against the property described in said deed for the current and prior years as provided by section 216e of the Revenue Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. ch. 120, §697e, as amended).

D. The court reserves jurisdiction of this cause for the purpose of issuing any order of possession to place and maintain said petitioner in possession of said real estate as may be necessary or desirable and for the purpose of executing the judicial deed authorized in paragraph A.

E. The order of court granting the City of Chicago a judicial deed to the property described in paragraph 2 of this order is expressly found to be final and appealable pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 304(a).
