Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person fails to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable personal property with any part thereof that may accrue to addition thereto) shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person. Sec. 6321(d)(1).

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless another day is specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the liability for the tax is created and continue until the liability for the tax, or amount of tax, is paid, or judgment against the taxpayer is given out after proceedings initiated or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

as Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Mechanics' Liens, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The tax imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanics' lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (b) has been filed by the Secretary.

as Place For Filing Notice; Form.

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (b) shall be filed:

(a) Under State Laws

    (i) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in and office within the State for the county, or other governmental subdivision, as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and

    (ii) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in connection with the place of business, or other permanent establishment, as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated, except that State law merely permitting the receiving Federal tax examiner a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State; or

    (iii) With Clerk Or Director Clerk.—In the office of the Clerk or the Director Clerk, except for the judicial district in which the property subject to the lien is situated, whenever the Clerk has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A), or

    (iv) In Receiver Of Debts Of The Chapter Of Canada.—In the office of the Receiver of Debts of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

United States

Secretary received written information (in the manner prescribed by regulations issued by the Secretary) concerning a change in the taxpayer's residence. A notice of such lien is also filed in accordance with subsection (f) in the State in which such residence is located.

(3) Required Refiling Period.—In the case of any notice of lien, the term "required refiling period" means:

(A) the one-year period ending 30 days after the expiration of 10 years after the date of the assessment of tax, and

(B) the one-year period ending with the expiration of 10 years after the close of the preceding required refiling period for each notice of lien.

as Notice; See Section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

1. Securities
2. Motor vehicles
3. Personal property purchased at retail
4. Personal property subjected to consensual lien
5. Personal property subjected to possessory lien
6. Real property tax and special assessment lien
7. Residential property subject to a mechanic's lien for certain repairs and improvements
8. Attorney's fees
9. Casual insurance contracts
10. Past due loans

as Refiling Of Notice.—For purposes of this section:

(1) General Rule.—Unless notice of lien is refiled in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subsection (f)) after the expiration of such refiling period.

(2) Place For Filing.—A notice of lien refiled during the required refiling period shall be effective only:

(A) If:

    (i) such notice of lien is filed in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed; and

    (ii) in the case of real property, and the fact of refileing is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (f)(4); and

    (iii) in any case in which, 30 days or more precede the date of a refiled notice of lien under subparagraph (A), the

(a) Release Of Lien.—Subject to such limitations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary issues a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any internal revenue tax not later than 30 days after the date on which:

(1) Liability Settled or Unenforceable.—If the Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, or with all interest in respect thereof, has been fully satisfied and has become legally unenforceable; or

(2) Bond Accepted.—There is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond that is conditioned on the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest thereon, within the time prescribed by law (but not any extension of such time), and that is accompanied by such requirements relating to terms, conditions, and the duty and sureties thereon, as may be specified by regulation.

Sec. 3103. Confidentiality of Returns and Returns Information.

as Disclosure of Certain Returns and Returns Information For Tax Administration Purposes.—

(a) Disclosure of amount of outstanding debt.—If a notice of lien has been filed pursuant to section 6321, the amount of the outstanding obligation secured by such notice may be disclosed to any person who furnishes such written evidence that he has a right in the property subject to such lien or intends to obtain a right in such property.
