Notice of Federal Tax Lien Under Internal Revenue Laws

District Chicago	Serial Number 369230259	For Optional Use by Recording Office 92849768
---------------------	----------------------------	---

As provided by sections 6321, 6322, and 6323 of the Internal Revenue Code, notice is given that taxes (including interest and penalties) have been assessed against the following-named taxpayer. Demand for payment of this liability has been made, but it remains unpaid. Therefore, there is a lien in favor of the United States on all property and rights to property belonging to this taxpayer for the amount of these taxes, and additional penalties, interest, and costs that may accrue.

Excerpts From Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6321. Lien For Taxes

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, additional amount, addition to tax, or assessable penalty, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien, in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether tangible or personal, belonging to such person. 1968-11-29 2A 10

Sec. 6322. Period Of Lien.

Unless otherwise provided specifically fixed by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall arise at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed (or a judgment against the taxpayer arising out of such liability) is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6323. Validity and Priority Against Certain Persons.

(a) Purchaser's, Holders Of Security Interests, Creditors, Lienors, And Judgment Lien Creditors.—The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanics' lien, or judgment lien except until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (b) has been filed by the Secretary.

a. Place For Filing Notice; Form.

(1) Place For Filing.—The notice referred to in subsection (b) shall be filed:

(i) Under State Laws.

(A) Real Property.—In the case of real property, in the office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision, notwithstanding, as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated); and

(B) Personal Property.—In the case of personal property, either tangible or intangible, in the office within the State for the security, or other governmental subdivision, as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated unless such State law merely purporting to re-enacting Federal law establishing a national filing system does not designate a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State; or

(ii) With Clerk Of District Court.—In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to the lien is situated, whenever the State has not by law designated an office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A), or

(iii) With Register Of Deeds Or The Register Of Deeds Of The District Of Columbia.—In the office of the register of deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Character Of Property Subject To Lien.—For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4), property shall be deemed to be situated:

(A) Real Property.—In the case of real property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the liability was created. 1968-11-29 2A 10 For purposes of paragraph (2)(B), the residence of a corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(B) Form.—The form and content of the notice referred to in subparagraph (a)(2)(B) may be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

Note: See section 6323(b) for protection for certain interests even though notice of lien imposed by section 6321 is filed with respect to:

1. Requirements.
2. Under State Law.
3. Personal property purchased at retail.
4. Personal property purchased in casual sale.
5. Personal property subjected to possessory lien.
6. Real property taxed under assessment laws.
7. Residential property subject to a mechanic's lien for certain repairs and improvements.
8. Attorney's fees.
9. Certain insurance contracts.
10. Passbook loans.

b. Refiling Of Notice.—For purposes of this section:

(1) General Rule.—1968-11-29 2A 10 A notice filed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (2) during the required refiling period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed (in accordance with subparagraph (1) above) as the expiration of such refiling period.

(2) Place For Filing.—The notice of lien, filed during the required refiling period, shall be effective only:

(A) If:

(i) such notice of lien is filed in the office in which the prior notice of lien was filed; and

(ii) in the case of real property, and the fact of refiling is entered and recorded in an index to the extent required by subsection (1)(4); and

(iii) in any case in which, 60 days or more prior to the date of a refiling of notice of lien under subparagraph (A), the
