To the extent permitted by applicable law, in case of payment of said indebtedness after the preparation or filing of any suit, and prior to the entry of any judgment or decree, a reasonable sum for legal services rendered to the time of such payment shall be allowed, which, together with any sum paid for continuation of evidence of title, court costs, stenographers' charges, and expenses of such proceedings shall be additional indebtedness secured hereby.
12. Receiver. Upon, or at any time after the commencement of any foreclosure proceeding hereunder, the court in which such suit is filed may appoint a receiver of the Premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice to Mortgagor or any party claiming under Mortgagor, without requiring bond, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of any person liable for payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and without regard to the then value of the Premises or the occupancy thereof as a homestead. Trustee or holder of the Note may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to manage, rent, and collect the rents, issues and profits of the Premises, due and to become due, during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagor, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the Premises during the whole of said period. The court, from time to time, may authorize the receiver to apply the net income from the Premises in his hands in payment in whole or in part of (a) the indebtedness secured hereby or the indebtedness secured by any decree foreclosing this Trust Deed, or any tax, special assessment or other liens which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or such decree, provided such application is made prior to the foreclosure sale; or (b) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

Provided, however, that the foregoing provision of this paragraph 13 shall not apply to the liens of this Trust Deed, the First Mortgage in existence on the date hereof and current real estate taxes not yet due and payable.
